THE CAPTAIN'S CLAIM

IS AN EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION FOR printing copies by the thousands from a single tograph writing or drawing. From one writing this process a thousand permanent fac similes pressions of circulars, price lists specifications, amination papers, assessment notices, etc., may printed in an ordinary copying press upon any scription of paper. Copies may be taken direct m the writing without any of the usual opera-ns of inking, rolling, transferring or type setting proof impression may be produced within five inutes after the writing has been completed be afterwards multiplied at the rate of five ndred an hour, at an infinitesimal cost.

One Thousand Copies
ay be produced from a single sheet of Papyroaph Paper, and a single application of color, at expense of four cents. It possesses over printing e advantages of an Autograph Letter, besides atting of illustrations without the expense of od cuts. It allows autograph letters to pass rough the mail as third class matter. It is inval-ble to any business. It can be seen in operation

Morning Oregonian.

VOL. XVII—NO. 109. PORTLAND, OREGON: MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1877. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Y. M. C. A. Association.

LOUISVILLE, June 8.—The Y. M. C. A. to-day discussed the work in the South, showing great progress there of late.

Adjourned.

GALVESTON, June 10.—The Y. M. C. A. convention adjourned this evening. The next national convention will be held in Baltimore in 1879.

Insurance Company's Loss.

GALVESTON, June 8.—The Fireman's Fund of San Francisco loses $75,000 by to-day's fire. The figures on $800 000 foreign insurance in the vaults of Sorrus block cannot be obtained to-night. List of business losses and insurance is rapidly being prepared by the commercial agency of R G Dun, including stocks and building, at their present value, has as yet reported the losses $1,525,000, insurance, $1,000,000. The losses not included in this list will not, it is thought, exceed $50,000. The Galveston Company loses an aggregate of $30,000. The offices of the foreign agencies were destroyed, and their books have not yet been taken from the vaults.

To Visit Little Rhody.

PROVIDENCE, June 8.—Hayes has accepted an invitation to visit Rhode Island during the coming summer.

Reception to Hendricks.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 9.—A farewell reception was tendered to Gov. Hendricks prior to his departure for Europe, at Masonic Hall to-night. The hall was crowded to overflowing and all standing room, occupied. Senator McDonald, on taking the chair, said this was a spontaneous outpouring of the people to show respect to a distinguished citizen who, had the popular vote prevailed, would now occupy the second place in the councils of the nation. Hon. D. W Voorhees was then introduced and made a five minutes speech, referring briefly to the public services of Gov Hendricks. The address was comparatively free from party questions, and was received with hearty and prolonged applause. Gov. Hendricks, on being introduced by Voorhees after the applause subsided spoke for nearly 2 minutes, thanking the people for the manifestations of love and esteem, and said, after the contest of last year and his official service as governor, he found himself worn out in political strength and thought a rest for six months to visit another part of the world would be beneficial. Referring to his public life he said he had always been to do the best he could, and whatever success had attended his course was due to that rule. The earnest and determined party contest that he had passed through left no personal or bitter pre judices to rankle in his breast. Senator Voorhees, in his remarks, felt hardly at liberty to speak of political questions, Senator Hendricks and himself always having been on the same side. He was proud that Gov. Hendricks was so popular with the people of the United States. He was sure that he had a majority of the popular vote as that Gov. Williams was elected Governor of Indiana, and in defeating them the people a blow had been struck at American institutions when thousands of gentlemen who did not vote for Gov. Hendricks himself regretted. Hereafter the man who is elected by voice and will of the people must be inaugurated. Brief speeches by Gov. Williams, ex-Congressman Landers and Judge Gooding, after which a general handshaking. Mr. and Mrs Hendricks left for Boston this morning and will sail Wednesday.

Pooling Railroad Freights.

CHICAGO, June 8.—The presidents of the roads met to-day, and a meeting at which the committee in charge of the pooling of west bound freights reported, and after a full discussion Le Grand Lockwood, assigned by the Presidents of the New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania roads, to go into effect July 1st, which it is said will inspire equitable and uniform shipping rates this summer.

Tweed for the New York Governors.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The World says it is generally believed Tweed will soon be liberated. Sweeney and Tweed having been discharged, there have been rumors coming from Albany. The latter recently said, in Switzerland, that he would see the city of New York eternally damned before he ever gave it a cent, and he did not care whether he ever saw the city again.

Heavy Rains.

ST LOUIS, June 9.—Heavy rains fell in Western Missouri and in Kansas the past few days, and great damage has been done to railroads, crops and other property.

Many Escapes from the Court Room.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Chas. Becker and Patrick Elliott, indicted for forgery of a $5,000 check and passing it on the Union Trust company, were taken to the Supreme Court chamber to-day on a writ of habeas corpus. Both were brought to court handcuffed, and when inside the building the manacles were removed. Instantly Elliott sprang to the door and disappeared in the crowd, and up to the present hour has not been seen or recaptured.

Trial for Heresy.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America for the past two days has been considering the case of Rev. Dr. Augustus Blaustel, of Kingston, N Y., accused of heresy. The case was first tried by the Ulster classes, who found the doctor guilty. Appeal was taken to the New York classes, which affirmed the previous decision. The case was then appealed to the General Synod and the matter brought to finish to-day by the adoption of a resolution confirming the previous actions.

Gold Shipments.

It is generally expected that the specie shipment to-day would include $1,250,000 in gold coin. Of this sum, $500,000 has been withdrawn, leaving the actual shipment of gold coin at $750,000.

Prisoner Shot.

FRANK BOURS while resisting arrest at Galveston last evening was fatally shot by Charles Koelbler. Bours had just robbed the officer.

The P. C. S. S. Co.'s Loss.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The officers of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company in San Francisco have stated that the losses by the Galveston fire aggregate only $100,000, and that their loss is not over $22,000, instead of $50,000 as stated last night.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Silver bars, 123½ greenbacks, 103⅝; silver coin, ¼ discount, gold dull. The new 4½ governments, steady. Stocks steady; Western Union, 81¾; Quicksilver, 15¼; Pacific Mail, 18⅞; Mariposa, 1⅛; Wells Fargo, 87½, New York Central, 90⅜ Erie, 19⅝; Central Pacific, 68; Bonds, 10⅜ Central Pacific bonds, 110¼.

Senator Ferry Better

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A special says Senator Ferry is somewhat better this afternoon, and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Officials Indicted.

It is stated that the grand jury which is now investigating the county commissioners has found bills against two persons, some being commissioners and some being those connected with them in corrupt jobs.

Kellogg Interviewed.

EX-GOV. Kellogg, who came here last night was reluctant to be interviewed then said to the Journal reporter who plied him with questions, that Louisiana affairs were not in a prosperous condition, and thought the Nicholls administration was making them worse than before. State bonds were not more valuable, crops were inferior, and Republicans were discouraged and broken in the State and must submit to the minority. He would not speak on the Southern policy of the President nor as to his own chances for the U S Senate. He reported Packard convalescing, but still very worn out. He (Packard) was coming North for a trip, but intended to return and attend to business in New Orleans.

Two Subjects not Connected.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Tribune says it is reported that Henry Ward Beecher received, from the Boston Lecture Association an offer of $20,000 to spend his vacation in California only had 600 000 tons of wheat for export after all, this last year and a partial failure of the present crop makes it probable that the surplus of '77 will be only 150 000 tons. All indications point to a strong market and high prices for grain next winter. Steamers generally are obliged to accept good rates of freight as low as those for which sailing ships are willing to carry the same goods, or approximately so. This is not the case however on a few routes and one of these is from New York to San Francisco. Ships sail around the Horn from both ports on this part of the coast to California in competition with steamers via Panama, and manage to transact considerable trade at about one-half the rates for freight charged, but steamers say 40 ships leave this port and 10 or 12 sail from Boston in the California trade every year.

California and Mississippi.

The Times, reviewing the quickness of punishment visited on the Chico culprits, asks: When shall we read Kemper, Moss for Chicago?

Reducing the Number of Customs Officers.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The reduction in the custom house here has already begun. Several men are discharged and reductions made. One man who received $7,000 per annum is reduced to $2 000.

Defaulting Collector.

A special dispatch announces that John Fromes, ex-collector of Hartford, Connecticut, is a defaulter to the amount of $30,000. His bonds amount to $50,000.

Hanging.

NEW YORK, June 9.—At Dunwiddi court House yesterday, Jack Pleasants was hanged for the murder of Ann Lundy in April last, both colored.

AT OPELOUSAS, Louisiana, Louis Rousan was hanged for the murder of Cyrus Brignac, on the 1st of March last.

High Water.

OMAHA, June 9.—The river has risen a foot to-day, and is still rising. The bottoms on both sides are under water and considerable damage is anticipated unless the water subsides soon.

The Chicago Indictments.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The grand jury to day brought in five indictments, of which four are against Perdis, Kimberly, Walker and Carpenter, and the other is supposed to be against Forsyth. These men are contractors, who have been doing work for the county.

Fast Trains.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—Fast trains will be run from here, commencing Sunday, and making the best time on record to New York.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The Lake Shore road will run to New York from Chicago a daily fast train, starting at 4 40 P M and arriving at 9 o'clock the next night, the best time ever made.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—The Toledo, Wabash and Vanderbilt roads will run a fast train from here to New York in 35 hours.

New Orleans Custom House Affairs.

NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—Twenty-nine employes of the custom house were dismissed to-day. Collector King denies the charges against the efficiency and economy of the custom house.

High Water in the South.

MEMPHIS, June 9.—The sawmill interest on Wolf river was damaged by flood this morning $40,000. The water in Bayou Gayoza is higher than ever before.

St. Louis Indictments.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—Wm. Matthews, of the well known firm of Wm. Matthews & Co, and C. W. Patterson, of Patterson & Co, pork packers, both well connected and socially prominent, have been indicted for forging warehouse receipts, upon which, it is alleged, they obtained over $14,000 from the Hibernian Bank in 1874.

Boat Race.

PITTSBURG, June 9.—The second single scull race for the championship of America and a purse of $2,000, between Wm Scharff and Wm Morris, both of this city, was rowed over the Upper Monongahela river course this afternoon. The race was 5 miles, 2½ up stream and return. Morris won without difficulty in 36.45.

The Galveston Fire.

GALVESTON, June 9.—An unknown man's body was found by parties who were removing debris from Blum's block to-day. It was charred and jammed beyond recognition. His identity will probably never be established. Vaults and safes have generally stood the test well, and in most instances the contents were preserved without damage. The greater portion of the burnt out firms have arranged for resumption of business. There is a general determination to rebuild immediately. The Fireman's Fund of San Francisco loses only $25,000.

Failure.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Sun says Charles Daplemann & Co., wholesale clothiers, at 34 Read street, and at San Francisco, failed, owing $20,000, two thirds of which is due in San Francisco, principally on loans. The goods were manufactured here and sent to San Francisco and sold.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Mexican Protest Ignored.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Times' Washington special on the Rio Grande border troubles, says the Mexican minister's protest is totally ignored. It was not even read at the Cabinet meeting. Diaz will probably send a minister to Washington, one in accord with both countries, which are determined to suppress these raids.

Gen. Sherman on Russian Aims.

The Tribune's Washington special says Gen Sherman says Russia is aiming mainly at acquisition in Asia. Russia wants Trebizond and the valley of the Tigris to get to the sea by way of the Persian Gulf.

The Syndicate.

WASHINGTON the Syndicate was in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury to-day, with regard to the negotiation of 4 per cent bonds.

Letter to Gen. Barber.

The following letter has been sent to Gen Barber at his home in Michigan:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, June 8

SIR—I am directed by the President to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th instant resigning the office of Third Assistant Postmaster General. While accepting your resignation to take effect as you request at the close of the present fiscal year, he wishes me to assure you of his confidence in your efficiency and of his appreciation of your valuable public services. The President desires me to convey to you his best wishes for your future success. Very respectfully yours

[signed,] W K ROGERS
Private Secretary

To Hon. E. W. Barber, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

Bank Note Redemption.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Receipts of National Bank notes for redemption for the week ending to day is $7,654,000 over $400,000 in excess of any week since the agency was organized.

A National bank of large circulation has three times within a few weeks gone through the following operations with the treasury. It has delivered its circulation one day and received its bond, and the next it has presented its bond and asked to increase its circulation. The Secretary has been obliged each time to cancel 80 per cent of the amount of greenbacks. The operations were on a very considerable scale, $1,000,000 in bonds each time. The attempt has been made to induce other banks in such attempt, to make legal tenders scarce.

The Cuban Filibusters.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The Secretary of State has inquired into the truth of the rumors of an expedition being fitted out in New Orleans to aid Cuban insurgents and received information that there is no foundation for the rumors.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON June 9.—There was a brief extra session of the cabinet to day, which it is understood was for the purpose of continuing the consideration of business entered up on yesterday, regarding the proposition of the syndicate for a new contract. So far as the attempts of the government are concerned it is now known that something has been agreed upon and it is an exhaustion and support of his determination that Secretary Sherman is now in consultation with authorities who arrived here yesterday forenoon.

Secretary London Legation.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Herald's Washington correspondent thinks the duties of secretary of the legation at London will ultimately be tendered to Benj Moran present minister to Portugal, whom the correspondent extols as use ul and honest.

Patent for Rapid Telegraphing.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A patent has just been granted to Loring Pickering one of the editors and proprietors of the Evening Bulletin and Morning Call newspapers of San Francisco for a method of rapid telegraphing of the fac simile of stereotyped plates. It is claimed that by the process the entire page of a newspaper can be transmitted by telegraph in from fifteen to thirty minutes, delivering a copy directly from the instrument in such a form that it can be handed immediately to the printers. In other words copy will be a substantial reproduction of the original except that it may be given in larger sized letters if so desired. The stereotype plate requires no preparation for the purpose of telegraphic transmission other than the filling of all its depressions or spaces between the face of the letters with a non-conducting substance which may be quickly applied, the face of the type being cleaned by means of an equally simple process. The plate thus prepared is placed upon a cylinder to revolve rapidly so as to present each successive letter to the fingers attached to a traveling frame. As the cylinder bearing the plate revolves the former must revolve in a frame which gradually advances by the operation of screws, and thus each and every line is successively presented to the fingers or magnetic points already mentioned. Necessarily a circuit is opened when the points are passing over the non conducting surface, but as often as the metal type presents itself to the said fingers the circuit is closed and the corresponding magnetic points open at the receiving station makes a record thereon in the same ratio as the original delineated in a series of fine lines either upon chemically prepared or ordinary paper fixed upon a corresponding cylinder at said receiving station.

Financial Subjects.

The Tribune's special from Washington says: It is stated on what appears to be good authority that there are now $93,000 000 of legal tenders locked up in the Treasury in various funds, while the debt statement accounts in detail have over $160,000,000.

It is now learned that Secretary Sherman has issued no definite order forbidding the issue of $1 and $2 notes. The printing of such notes has ceased, and the sub treasurers have received instructions which they consider as a prohibition on paying out any notes of less denominations than $5. The retirement of small notes can now be regarded as a feature of the present financial policy, and the purpose is no doubt to pave the way to resumption. A prominent member of the syndicate made the discovery that new 4s and 4½ per cent bonds are redeemable in silver as well as gold. The act authorizing their issue provides for payment in gold or silver coin of the United States, and these words are printed on the face of the bonds. "According to the claims of the silver men, the bonds may be redeemed at maturity without further legislation, in silver coin of standard weight or fineness, described by the act of 1870." As that law is now repealed, however, new legislation will be required to coin a dollar of the stand and existing at the time it was passed.

Sherman has expressed opinions that will give genuine surprise to the people who have been confidently counting upon him to influence the administration to adhere rigidly to a gold standard. He said newspapers in representing him as opposed to the monetization of silver do not state his position correctly. He is in favor of making silver a legal tender for all purposes for which United States are now legal tender. He is opposed to legislation legalizing the use of silver in payment of customs duties, or, for any other purposes for which greenbacks may not be lawfully applied.

Syndicate Contract.

WASHINGTON, June 9—The Secretary of the Treasury and Messrs Rothschild, Morgan, Seligman Bros., Morton, Rose & Co., Belmont, Drexel, Morgan & Co., Morton, Bliss & Co., and the First National Bank at New York, have signed a contract for the sale, of the four per cent thirty year consols at par in coin, of which $25 000 000 are subscribed for now to be paid in July and August, $7,000,000 to be for resumption of six per cent bonds, and sales are to be continued as rapidly as possible. The contract is for six months, and is similar in general terms to the former contracts, but has an important provision that, for thirty days after the loan shall be open to popular subscription in the principal cities of the United States at par in coin, with a right to pay for the bonds within 90 days after subscription, upon delivery.

Bonds Withdrawn.

Upon notice given some days since the Secretary of the Treasury has withdrawn from market 100 millions of 4½ per cent bonds and the former syndicate have subscribed under the old contract for 25 millions 4½ per cent bonds, being the balance of the 100 millions to be applied during June for resumption purposes, and 5 millions during July for the same purpose, and fifteen millions to be applied to redemption of 6 per cent bonds. These agreements close out the 4½ per cent. loan and place upon the market the 4 per cent. loan with a firm subscription of 25 million. The new loan drawing 4 per cent and extending for thirty years with interest is payable quarter yearly, and is far more favorable for the government than ever before issued, and from its permanency and security will become an investment of the carrying of the people of the United States and in Europe of every kind, and will lessen one third of the burden of public debts to the amount of the bonds. The bonds are issued for 50, 100, 500, 1 000 dollars and larger amounts, and will by the mode of their sale be brought within the reach of all classes of people.

MEXICO.

Diaz Recognized.

CITY OF MEXICO May 31—Gen Diaz was officially recognized by the German Empire as the constitutional President of Mexico.

Mexican Election.

SAN DIEGO June 9—A special to the Union from Guaymas June 1st, via Tucson says: The primary elections indicate that Mariscal is chosen Governor of Sonora.

Affairs in Mexico.

Advices from the City of Mexico say the story of railway concession is quite certain and was given to competent men and not mere speculators. Sonora feels something of this and must be done and is almost certain to have a law passed abolishing export duty on gold, silver and coined bullion. Diaz and his minister of the treasury are in favor of the abolishment.

All is quiet, and it is believed Lerdo's movement will amount to nothing.

Is it Cholera.

MATAMORAS June 9—The Brownsville Sentinel announces that a disease, something like cholera has broken out among the troops at Ringgold Barracks, about 30 are down six have died. The attack commenced with diarrhœa and colic. The disease has appeared in this city and several cases have proved fatal within the past few days. So far there is no certainty it is Asiatic cholera, but appearances seem to indicate that it is more than the usual cholera morbus incident to excessive use of fruits.

Macon (Ga.) Telegraph—As matters now stand, we heartily favor Mr. Randall for Speaker. He stood squarely by us when we had few friends, and were in dire extremity. Sherman's hostility and that of the Hayes administration ought to settle the question of the speakership in his favor.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

Montenegrins and Turks.

OSTROK, June 8.—A Turkish column going to Gorajsko was met by Gen Socicia and driven back to Muratovitza where it was encamped at the latest information. As the defeat of this column would leave the rear of Suleiman Pasha's army exposed it is probable he will attack Gen Socicia before moving on Gen Tchernitch again.

Broth Servia comes news that Prince Nikita has sent reinforcements to the Montenegrins divided at Kristus, and that they have taken up a position at Petrinac Prankia towards the end of Duga pass in the direction of Nisic where probably another attempt will be made to stop Suleiman on his way to provision that place. But for this purpose only a portion of the forces could be spared as the Turkish invasion threatens Montenegro from the third side to which portion attention seems to have been paid, namely from Scutera. The report of this third division seems undoubtedly true, being confirmed by Turkish official bulletins and from other reliable sources. The correspondent admits the Turkish division from Berun has crossed the frontier at Wassoic, and taken up a position which they have fortified. Another attack is anticipated from the side of Antivari. Gen Socicia reported to Prince Nikita that he had succeeded in cutting in two a Turkish column which was attempting to relieve Goranska capturing a provision train of 700 horses.

A New Russian Levy.

ST PETERSBURG, June 8.—The Russian official Messenger publishes a decree ordering a new levy of 218,000 men. So great a levy is unprecedented.

Turkish Conscription Postponed.

LONDON, June 8.—A Vienna correspondent states that in consequence of the remonstrances of Christian dignitaries as to the propriety of pressing Christians to fight in a Holy Moslem war the Porte has postponed the conscript on of its Christian subjects and commenced to levy the usual exemption money.

Laws for Bulgaria.

A dispatch from Ploiesti asserts that laws for the future government of Bulgaria are already drawn up in Russia and have been translated into the native language within the last day or two.

In Favor of Annexation to Russia.

VIENNA, June 9.—Both from Constantinople and Erzeroum come reports of considerable agitation among the Armenian population of the Pashalic of Erzeroum for ultimate annexation to Russia. This causes great anxiety in Stamboul.

Grain Ships Seized.

A special from Pera reports that Hobart Pasha has captured three Greek grain ships which were endeavoring to run the blockade of Kertch.

Hurrying Her Fleet.

BERLIN, June 9.—The German iron clad squadron, on its way to the East, has been ordered to proceed with greatest speed. A second practice squadron of seven vessels is about to be armed. The admiralty are preparing to enlist additional seamen. No persons liable to service in the navy are permitted to leave their districts.

A Hungarian Interpellation.

PESTH, June 9.—Stamani announced in the Hungarian Diet that he would interpellate the governme nt regarding the principle of its policy in the East, namely whether a connection exists between Austro-Hungary and one of the belligerents, and whether annexation or occupation is attended.

Turkish Finances.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 9.—The financial committee in the Chamber of Deputies will recommend that five million Turkish pounds demanded by the ministers, be raised by means of a forced loan secured by taxes levied on the security of public functionaries and by doubling the present land tax.

Officials Removed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 9.—Latest dispatches from Erzeroum state that the Russians continue to advance. Mukhtar Pasha has drawn closer to Erzeroum, where a battle appears imminent.

Advancing into Montenegro.

Ali Pasha, commander at Novi Bazar telegraphs as follows: "The Turks continue to advance into Montenegrin territory. They have thrown a bridge over the river Lim and there attacked the village of Androvitch, the chief place in Susonpik. The Montenegrins were routed and the village captured, whereupon five villages on the banks of the Lim submitted. To-morrow we attack Prantimchika." He also telegraphs the Montenegrins attacked Podgoritza and were repulsed.

The Suez Canal.

MALTA June 10.—A telegram from Port Said reports 20 feet of water at the Mediterranean entrance of the Suez canal.

General War Notes.

LONDON, June 9.—Turkish journals assert that Hobart Pasha has left Varna with a squadron to bombard Odessa. A state of siege having been proclaimed in Roumania, telegrams concerning military movements henceforth will be stopped. One of the great causes of the state of siege was the unsatisfactory working of Roumania railways. All railroad officials are now subject to military authority. Russians not only intend to occupy Bulgaria, but have all arrangements for remaining at least three years in villages of Adrianople.

Russian merchants in Baltic ports are reported to be clearing their wharves and warehouses by exporting all goods as fast as possible, apprehending general proambition of exportations.

Montenegrins are cannonading Spuz.

A Russian force from Ardahan has reached Ardanudusch. The Governor and four battalions of the garrison of Ardahan reached Erzeroum. The Governor will be court-martialed.

There has been skirmishes with the advance of the Russian right wing near Namiran.

Mukhtar Pasha has sent a force to cut communication of the Russian right wing and centre.

It is reported Mukhtar Pasha has been cut off from Erzeroum and Kars.

The Russians attempted to cross the Danube in force between Nikopolis and Sistova Friday, but were repulsed.

It is decisively settled that Prince Milan will not visit the Czar in Roumania.

The Papal Presents.

The Pope received during Jubilee $1 100,000 in hard cash not counting innumerable articles of value presented. A delegation from Guadaloupe presented a number of bricks made of solid silver similar to the one given to the church by citizens of San Francisco.

UTAH.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Herald's Washington special says: Sumner Howard has been in conference for a couple of days with Devens, at the invitation of the latter, who is desirous of learning all facts connected with the prosecution against Mormons now being conducted by the district attorney, of which he proposed to collect evidence to be submitted to the grand juries at Salt Lake and Pearce. The appropriation for the department of justice was largely curtailed by the last Congress, and the Attorney General is unwilling to make any expenditure of money in prosecutions which are not likely to be successful. The testimony in Mormon suits will have to be sought from witnesses who were driven off and are now scattered as far west as California and as far east as Illinois, and the fees and expenses of bringing these witnesses back to Utah to testify will call for a large amount of money. It was to see the nature of this evidence that Devens invited Howard to Washington. He is said to be satisfied of its value, and that he will authorize the requisite outlay to procure it. He is therefore far from contemplating a discontinuance of the suits as now reported in some of the papers.

Gentiles Elated.

SALT LAKE, June 10.—The news is confirmed to-day that the government at Washington has decided to strengthen the hands of the United States officials here in Utah, produces a profound depression among Mormons and corresponding exultation among Gentiles. No one who understood the tenor of the testimony which District Attorney Howard carried hence to his official chief was surprised by the result of his representations to the Department and the President. They were so sustained by facts that they could not have failed to make an impression at Washington. Here in Salt Lake it is hoped by not what is called federal rings, but by merchants, bankers and owners of mines and other gentlemen responsible for more than one half the capital invested in Utah, that the problem, now more than ever publicly discussed, may be solved. The solution lies not merely with the Attorney General but with Congress. The suppressed excitement here occasioned by a promise that the government is at last taking real interest in Mormon affairs and the punishment of miscreants in Utah is impending, and Dis rict Attorney Howard is the hero of the day.

EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS.

Malheur, May 24, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Having resided in Oregon for twenty-four years and paced several visits to this upper country, carefully noting its products, perhaps my opinion in regard thereto may be worth something to your readers. I will premise by saying that all this upper country is far better as a wheat-producing region than has generally been supposed. Land here which formerly was accounted worthless will produce, if fall sown, thirty bushels to the acre of good plump wheat.

Beginning upon the Umatilla river and running northeast, there is a belt of country of very rich soil, extending along the Blue and Coeur d'Alene mountains, varying from twenty to sixty miles in width. It is two hundred miles long. Upon this tract forty to fifty bushels an acre is no unusual crop. Of the more hardy vegetables the yield is simply enormous. Much of the country is very hilly, and on this account it is objectionable to many who visit it. The hills, however, are nearly as rich and productive as the valleys. But though the country so abounds in hills, it is also penetrated by valleys everywhere, from half a mile in width down to a breadth of a few rods. Perhaps few persons have examined the Palouse country more carefully as to its producting capacity than I have, and my opinion is that there is hardly a quarter section but that one-third or more of it could be tilled, and often every acre. The country is also well watered. Springs abound, but most of the small brooks go dry in summer. The good spring dries up soon sinks in the rich coming soil. There is little or no gravel in the brooks, which have therefore a somewhat muddy appearance. For health the country is as good as any other on the Pacific Coast. A few localities lying high are quite subject to frost, but in nearly all places even the more tender vegetables will grow well. Perhaps no country anywhere, equally large, contains so much good land for cultivation, or yields so in the same latitude an equal variety of produce. Being mostly prairie, wood and fencing materials are rather scarce.

The small fruits do well. Strawberries, raspberries, wild currants and blackberries are bearing freely all over the country. Bunch grass abounds, and the land that is too steep for the plow will furnish the best of pasture. As one recedes from the mountains the country becomes dryer and less liable to frosts.

Respectfully,
WM RUBLE

EFFECTS OF THE DROUTH.—The Salem Mercury has the following relative to the effects of the drouth in California:

We are informed by a gentleman of large experience in raising cattle, sheep and horses, who has lately returned from California, that in the vicinity of Hollister in that State, a large stock raiser has killed hundreds and hundreds of his sheep and fed them to fatten his hogs, knowing that they would all shortly die from lack of grass, it only being a question of time. Some of the sheep killed, it is said, would bring a hundred dollars apiece if they could be driven to Oregon, where grass and feed are plenty. The same party was offering his sheep for twenty five cents a head, but could get no buyers, from the fact that there is not grass and water enough in that locality to subsist them on while they were being driven out of the country. Another farmer had a band of five hundred horses, which he was killing in order to save some grass and feed he had for ke

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1877.

QUITE A PLAIN MATTER.

It is one of the infirmities of an earnest and exclusive partisanship that it is unable to perceive and acknowledge a fact that tells against its interests. In this the partisan is not always intentionally wrong; but his devotion to his cause impels him to search for arguments to support it, and to pass over without due examination the facts that would make against him. This weakness has always been perceived. A remark upon it is put by an old historian into the mouth of an observer of certain political transactions, who said "it was evident there was a rule of morals, of judgment and of action in party affairs far different from that which prevailed in all the other concerns of life"; and Lecky, a recent writer of large scope and deep generation, in a chapter on political morals has an observation that runs to the same purpose, a rough put in somewhat different form. These writers only state a permanent trait of human nature. To admit nothing against party interest; to suppress, conceal, or try to explain away facts that may be hurtful to the party whose cause they espouse, is a habit which many journals among us still pursue. Here at hand, for instance, is a paper which asserts in substance that no considerable indebtedness has been created for our State since 1870. True, the figures show otherwise; true, the Governor reported various items of liability last year to the legislative assembly, amounting to nearly three-quarters of a million dollars, exclusive of interest, which would materially augment the sum; true, the assets of the State—that is to say, cash in the treasury—would nearly have paid its debts in 1870, excepting about ninety thousand dollars of bounty bonds. But there is an intrepidity that meets all this with ambiguous explanation or flat denial, and supposes that the whole case is fully answered. An attempt is made to put out of sight the lock bonds, the wagon road bonds, the Modoc war bonds, and other items of indebtedness; and finally to charge the outstanding State warrants to the account of a preceding administration, without giving that administration credit for the cash turned over to its successors. This method will never satisfy the people. They know that those portions of the debt which are not to be paid by direct taxation, nevertheless must be paid out of the resources of the State, which comes to precisely the same thing in the end. These, therefore, are part of the State's liabilities. It is therefore disingenuous to deny that the State owes a large sum of money. As we have heretofore stated, Gov. Grover reported at the last session of the legislature debts of various kinds amounting to $717,197 32, which will be greatly increased by accruing interest, and in all probability by deficiencies, against the next meeting of the legislature. Some think the whole amount will be nearly a million dollars; but put it at three-quarters of a million, and it is large enough. To assert in the interest of party that this fact is "exploded" is not only to discredit public intelligence, but to question the official reports made by the head of the party in the interest of which the denial of indebtedness is made. This is really quite a plain matter, and no attempt to juggle with figures in order to confuse or disprove it, will avail.

NOTES AND DISCORDANT.

It has been announced by telegraph that President Hayes was greatly pleased with Senator Morton's letter. But by many newspapers that sustain the President and admire his policy the letter is bitterly assailed. Even the National Republican makes an attack upon it. So long as Grant was President that paper was clamorous for military rule in the South. But when Hayes entered the White House it immediately became an admirer of the opposite policy. Certain observers of events at Washington profess to know that Hayes was not greatly pleased with Morton's letter after all; considering it, as the Philadelphia Times does not scruple to call it, "a studied and subtle attack on his policy." And they say, too, that a double-leaded editorial in the National Republican, an extract from which is given below, was published by that paper as a criticism upon the letter and its author, in order to please the President and to present a reflection of his views without bringing on him any responsibility therefor. This may be considered an apocryphal story; but it is curious to note the savagery of the Republican's attack on Morton's letter, and in connection with it the assumption of Washington correspondents that it was inspired from the White House. Evidently that paper supposed it was doing the President a service when it attacked the letter and its author in this slashing style:

"Among the things both painful and amusing to witness is to see a prominent politician cast about in the straits of public opinion, not knowing whither to direct his craft, and keen to note his terror, trepidation and terriversations. Just such an exhibition we have been treated to in the ground and lofty tumbling of Senator Morton in the political arena. Big with presidential aspirations, and fearing either to speak or keep silent; lest utterance or silence shall destroy his prospects, after months of anxiety he breaks forth, as has always been done in such cases from time immemorial, in strains to please ears prone to very sense. He comes rushing into the ring tempting to ride two horses, each carrying in different directions, flying the pale flag of peace and the ensanguined shirt and playing the harp of a thousand strings. Determined to be on every side and to be the champion of every view, he declares himself to be in full sympathy with the President in the end sought to be obtained by his policy, while he solemnly protests, in every word, he speaks that the means adopted to secure the end were wicked in their indifference to the wants and welfare of the Republican party and the majority of the States surrendered to the Democratic party."

The Murphy temperance movement is making great progress in Eastern cities, and is accomplishing real good. It proceeds on a much more rational system than the crusading movement of three years ago, which simply reversed the order of reform. The present effort is to reclaim the drinkers and to enforce by various influences a pledge of abstinence; the former effort was a war on the liquor dealers, and really accomplished nothing. It has occurred to those who are guiding the present movement that it is a far more effective method of temperance work to reform the drinkers than to fight the sellers; and their success proves it. Most of the effort expended in the crusading way was so much energy wasted. The only way to decrease the number of liquor dealers is to decrease the number of buyers and consumers. It would be impossible even for liquor sellers to make objection to this method of temperance reform. Francis Murphy began at Pittsburg several months ago. He was once the most intemperate of men, but triumphed over his degradation and became an advocate of the temperance cause. He possesses a fascinating manner, a lively imagination and singular power of speech, all of which qualities he employs in a way that produces a very great effect on an audience. Realizing the fact that makers and sellers of liquors wouldn't be in the business unless they were supported by the consumers, he directs his appeals to this latter class. Others have taken up this form and phase of the work, and an impulse seems to be given to genuine temperance reform in Eastern cities.

Last year the National Board of Fire Underwriters at New York resolved to ascertain as nearly as possible the sum which the fire insurance companies of the United States had to pay for losses occasioned by the use of fireworks and fire-crackers on the Fourth of July. The range of inquiry included nearly all the cities and towns in which risks are carried. It was ascertained that the Fourth of July, 1876, was a remarkably lucky one, as losses by fire from this cause did not reach half a million dollars. Of 813 companies doing business in the United States, 489 reported payments of losses arising from this nuisance and foolery amounting to $154,574. But heretofore the rate has been far more destructive. Since January, 1865, the destruction of property traceable directly to fire-works used on the national anniversary has been twenty millions of dollars, while the whole value of fireworks of American manufacture sold since that period has been but $2,556,000, and the invoice value of all imported has been less than $1,500,000. The loss occasioned in this way has therefore exceeded by five-fold the entire value of the dangerous article that produced it. Every dollar's worth of fire-crackers imported into the country, the underwriters say, has caused a direct loss by fire of more than one hundred dollars; and the inquiry is pertinently made whether this is not a severe tax on owners of property and on insurance companies, for the gratification of juvenile patriotism. The approach of another Fourth of July makes this subject a timely one. The report before us declares the explosion of crackers and the combustion of fireworks an irrational mode of celebrating the day. But these things are mainly designed for the gratification of children, and from the standpoint of mature years all juvenile amusements may be pronounced irrational.

It is contended by the Mountaineer that the fishery at the Dalles and that at Deschutes are not a danger at all to the future supply of fish. At his "trap" on Deschutes Mr. Shearer intends to take only eighteen hundred fish, and the company at the Dalles will put up this season only five hundred half barrels, say six thousand fish in all. Such a number is insignificant when compared with those on the lower river. So far the Mountaineer is right. But the main point we had in view when noticing this subject on a former occasion was to call attention to the danger that would follow if extensive fisheries were established at the narrow points along the river, where nearly every fish could be taken. The present small fisheries there will make no visible impression on the supply, and the people have the same right to take the fish as those who are in the business on the river at points below. But nobody ought to be allowed to select points on the river where the fish cannot escape, and then catch all he can. A Dalles paper reported that one man recently took our five hundred at one of these places in a single afternoon. If this were followed up by a large company employing many men and prepared to make the most of the opportunity, how long would there be any salmon in the river?

In a well-known case from Nevada, appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, it is held that the ores or products of mines are subject to taxation as all other descriptions of property. The tax was resisted on the ground that the title to the land from which the mineral was taken belonged to the United States, and the parties were mining the ore by permission of the laws. The Court, overruling this plea, stated the doctrine thus: "When the ore becomes detached from the soil in which it is imbedded it becomes personal property, the ownership of which is in the man whose labor, capital and skill has discovered and developed the mine and extricated the ore. It is then free from any lien, claim or title of the United States, and is rightfully subject to taxation by the State as any other personal property is."

Chicago is making great progress in contending with St. Louis for the trade of the Southwest. Passengers now go through without change of cars from Chicago to Galveston, and the managers of a single road run two hundred cars a day, exclusive of sleepers and passenger coaches, out of Chicago for different points in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas.

There are now forty steamboats on the upper Missouri, mostly in the Montana trade.

OFFICE OF INSURANCE COMMISSIONER,
San Francisco, Feb. 5, 1877.

I, J. W. Foard, hereby certify that I am Insurance Commissioner of the State of California, and have supervision of insurance business in the State, and as such Commissioner, further certify that the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California is a corporation properly organized under the laws of this State, and being in a solvent condition and possessed of a paid up capital of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, equal to Gold Coin of the United States, is authorized to do business in the State. And I further certify that, upon a personal examination of the books and papers of the said company, at the close of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six, its statement as of this date, and now on file in this office, was shown to be correct and true, the company being possessed of good, valid assets amounting to one million two hundred and sixty-four thousand eight hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty-six cents ($1,264,836 86), and having outstanding liabilities, as defined by the laws of the State, amounting to nine hundred and sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and five cents ($916,750 05) exclusive of the Capital Stock.

J. W. FOARD,
Insurance Commissioner.

[Extract from Report of A. P. Smith, ex-Deputy Insurance Commissioner.]

J. G. EDWARDS, Publisher Coast Review,

Dear Sir:—In pursuance of your request I have made an examination of the Assets and Liabilities of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, as they existed on the 31st day of December, 1876, as shown by the books and papers of the Company, and as a result of such examination I beg to report as follows

* * * * * * *

Total Assets, Gold	$1,281,847 59
Re-Insurance Reserve, American Experience, 4½ per ct. $886,031 49
Claims for Death Losses..... 28,700 00
Due on Account Salaries and Rents..... 2,019 02
Total Liabilities, Gold.....	916,750 51
Net surplus to Policy-holders, Gold.....	$365,097 08
Company's paid-up Capital.....	$100,000 00

The above is, I believe, a true and fair statement of the Company's condition Dec. 31, 1876.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I found the Company's business thoroughly systematized—its books and papers in excellent condition and neatly kept. Every facility was extended to me by all the officers and employees of the Company to enable me to make my examination thorough. Books, papers, and accounts were freely exhibited to me. There was no attempt to hold back or conceal anything. I am satisfied the Company counts the most rigid scrutiny. For courteous treatment, I beg to return thanks to the officers and clerks of the Company.

Respectfully submitted, A. D. SMITH.
San Francisco February 3, 1877.

Commissioner Foard excludes items of assets not admitted under the laws of California, amounting to $17,010 74.

Drowning.—Henry Dellinger, a lad 6 years of age of Mr. Wm. Dellinger, fell from the wharf at the rear of the American Exchange Hotel last Saturday evening about five o'clock, and was drowned. In company with two other lads, Henry was playing at the foot of Washington street. There is one gangway at the point where the steamers land, but this is now about on account of the high water. Henry was out walking on the gangway, boy like, showing his companions how courageous he could be. Having reached the end of the gangway, the venturesome lad stepped off on to some pieces of timber which were secured to the top of the piles, (the floor- ing having been washed away,) and began to walk along them. While so doing, he lost his balance and fell into the water. His companions saw him fall, but strange to say, did not raise the alarm. Some time elapsed, when a gentleman who clerks on the wharf, observing it, ran to the office at the time engaged in settling accounts, and just happened to overhear one of the clerks say to his companion that "Henry Dellinger was drowned." He ran out of the office and on reaching the end of the gangway discovered a hat floating under the wharf. Procuring a hook the clerk began to grapple for the body, which he was fortunate to soon recover. Life was extinct, and all efforts to resuscitate the body proved of no avail. No inquest was held as Coroner Delin deemed it unnecessary. Henry was a bright, handsome boy, and his parents are inconsolable over their bereavement.

Illness of Dr. Sloan.—After a painful and protracted illness of many weeks Dr. T. J. Sloan, a practicing physician of this city, de- parted this life at the residence of his brother, Wm. Sloan, at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The disease was the result of en- largement of the liver and abscess of the stomach. Up to the hour of his death he was conscious, and seemed well aware of his approaching departure from these shores. He fully come. Dr. Sloan was a native of Pennsylvania, and has resided in Portland since 1868, and has resided continually ever since, with the exception of a few months. Politically he was a consistent Republican, and took an active interest in politi- cal matters. He had a very excellent war rec- ord, having raised a regiment in Chicago and led it into the service of the United States as Colonel of the 34th Regiment, Illinois vol- unteers. He was a generous, high-minded man, and truthful in public and private life, a word could be tered. His death is deeply regretted by a large circle of

The monthly meeting of the Board of Managers will con- vene after the adjournment of the associa- tion meeting.

Died at the Hospital.—Saturday a young man named James Allen Wright departed this life at Good Samaritan Hospital of con- sumption, after a lingering illness. Deceased was in the 28th year of his age. To-day the remains will be forwarded to Oregon City for interment.

Trading with Salmon.—The ship Isle of Arran is now down the river loading with sal- mon for Europe. Last week the vessel laid [illegible] days at the wharf at Rainier and took on [illegible] pounds of salmon at that point. She will take on more salmon at other points along the Columbia.

Stranded.—While the steamer Oriental was descending the Willamette Saturday with a full cargo she grounded at McCloskey Chute, a short distance below Salem. Owing to this accident the steamer failed to reach here yes- terday. No damage resulted to the boat or cargo.

Fruit Dryer.—Mr. J. E. Lambert, of Mil- waukie, one of the oldest and most extensive fruit growers in Oregon, is erecting a fruit drying factory on his farm, which is to be run exclusively with the Plummer new patent dryers.

Real Estate Sold.—Last Saturday the lots on the corner of North Ninth and Stark streets were sold at auction. Dr. McKinnell was the purchaser, and the price was $1,445. The bidding was spirited, and Kilbourn had a lively matinee.

Examination.—Examinations at the Bishop Scott Grammar School will be as follows to- morrow: 9 to 11, English Grammar, Mr. Grant; 11 to 12, Greek, Mr. Burton; 1 to 3, English Grammar, Mr. Grant; 3 to 4, Greek, Mr. Burton.

Exempt Firemen's Association.—There will be a regular meeting of the Exempt Fire- men's Association at the Police Court room at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

BURGLARS ARRESTED.

Saturday Chief Lappeus received a dispatch from Chief Ellis, of San Francisco, conveying the welcome intelligence that two men had been arrested there who were connected with the commission of three burglaries. We refer to the robbery of the Abalone shell jewelry in Monnastes' store many weeks ago, the bur- glary of the store of Bailey, Gatzert & Co., Seattle, and the robbery of the N. P. R. R. Co.'s safe at Kalama a few weeks ago. The names of the parties apprehended are Henry Schultz, alias Henry, alias St. Clair, and Doc Fitzgerald, alias Doc O'Brine. The party first named was in this city some time ago, where he sailed under the names of Henry, alias St. Clair. He is the same enterprising young man who was engaged here in circulating lead pipe for $20 silver rolls. He was arrested, it will remembered, and sent to the city jail for five days for vagrancy. Fitzgerald came from the Sound, and so far as is known, never was in Portland. During the time Henry was in this city and prior to his arrest, he (probably with the assistance of an accomplice), un- doubtedly entered the store of Mr. Monnastes on First street, and carried away Mr. R. W. Jackson's entire stock of Abalone jewelry. After his arrest and convict on for vagrancy he was released on the promise that he would leave the city "for keeps." Tuesday night, May 22d, the safe of the N. P. R. R. Co., at Kalama was broken into and the contents carried away. Monday, the preceding day, Henry was seen on the streets of Portland by Chief Lappeus, who reminded him of his promise. Henry told him he was going to leave here for certain the next morning; that he was going to Albany. He did leave next morning, but went down to Kalama, where, by a manifest preconcerted arrangement he met Fitzgerald, who came somewhere from the Sound. These persons were seen in the brush Tuesday about one mile below Kalama by Dr. Whitehouse and Mr. Patterson. Mon- day a young man came into the railroad company's office at Kalama and inquired for work. He remained about the office for some time, evidently acquainting himself with the premises. He was also seen in the machine shop at that place. Some tools were taken from the shop which were subsequently found in the brush where these men were seen. The name of the third person connected with this robbery is, as yet, unknown. After com- mitting the robbery, Fitzgerald and his friend of numerous aliases procured a boat and started for Astoria. Officer McCoy was sent down by Chief Lappeus to work up the case, but did not reach Astoria until Thursday. He traced the boat from point to point as far as Pillar Rock where he lost track. He supposed then that the men had started to Unity, intending to reach, if possible, Gray's Harbor, and so escape in that direction. But he was mistaken; and while endeavoring to trace them up, they took the San Francisco steamer and eluded his clutches. However, "Mac" came very near getting them after all, and had not the plun- ger in which he was coming over to Astoria been becalmed several hours, he would have reached there in time to nip the scoundrels. When he found that they had given him the slip, he telegraphed at once to Chief Ellis, who bagged the game soon after the arrival of the steamer. On searching their baggage, that officer found $480 in gold notes, all the Aba- lone jewelry lost by Mr. Jackson, and also a lot of other jewelry, which was identified as belonging to Bailey, Gatzert & Co., of Seattle. The evidence against these fellows is most conclusive, and escape from the consequences of their crimes seems impossible. A requisi- tion will be forwarded and they will be brought here. Doubtless other persons are connected with Fitzgerald and Henry in the three crimes, and no effort will be spared by the authorities to bring to condign punish- ment all the guilty parties. To Officer McCoy much credit is due for the manner in which he worked the case up.

PICNICS.

German School.—Yesterday a large number of pupils connected with the Independent German School, and parents and patrons, repaired to Canyon Garden. A very pleasant time was experienced by the children and those who cannot be called children.

East Portland Park.—This favorite place was visited yesterday by hundreds of persons, the occasion being the annual picnic given there by the Emmet Guard. During the day dancing and games were indulged in, and a general good time experienced. Dancing and promenading continued up to a late hour last evening. The day's receipts were quite sub- stantial.

Hibernian Picnic.—This old and highly esteemed organization are making extensive arrangements for holding a grand picnic on the Fourth of July. At first the committee having the affair under charge contemplated giving the picnic at a point some distance from the city. However, after thoroughly considering the matter, they concluded to lease East Portland Park and hold the picnic there. The committee propose to make sev- eral important improvements to the grounds, among other things, enlarge the dancing plat- form and cover it with canvas. Every ar- rangement will be made which can possibly contribute to the pleasure of the crowds who will doubtless attend. The Northwestern Band has been employed, which is a guaranty that good music will be furnished. There will be a display of fireworks in the evening, and dancing will be continued until 10 o'clock. No effort or expense will be spared to make the affair thoroughly enjoyable and in every particular worthy of patronage. The committee having entire management of the affair are composed of the following gent e- men: Thomas Kearney, Frank Gatens and Wm. J. Quirk.

WILLOW WIELDERS.

An interesting game of base ball was played on the Pioneer grounds Saturday afternoon, between the Athletic and Mutual base ball clubs. This was the second and decisive game between the two clubs, the Athletics having won the last game by a score of 41 to 15 runs. In this game the Athletics came off victorious by 8 runs. There was some excel- lent playing done by both clubs. The game was played with ten men on each side. The day was very warm, but the game was still warmer. The score stood—Athletics, 31; Mutuals, 23. Mr. Al. Oliver acted as umpire. The Athletics caught the following flies: Ettinger, 3; Curry, 2; Giltner, 3; Holcomb, 2; Parsons, 3; Watkins, 2; Winnie, 1. Mu- tuals—Hamilton, 1; Jones, 1; Capen, 1; Lea- high, 2; Clopton, 3; Holmes, 2. Flies muffed —Mutuals: Clopton, 2; Jones, 1; Capen, 1; Leahigh, 1; Holmes, 1. Athletics—Giltner, 1; Winnie, 1. Total—Athletics caught 16, muffed 2. Mutuals caught 10, muffed 6. The Ath- letics are going to challenge the East Portland club for next Saturday, the 16th inst.

Acknowledgement.—The trustees, Ladies' Aid Society, and members generally, of East Portland M. E. church, wish to express their unanimous and hearty thanks to Mrs. Dr. I. Dillon, for the conception of plan and happy carrying out of details of the late excursion to the Cascades, by which successful enterprise so large a sum was realized with which to liquidate the debt on said church.

Steamer.—A dispatch from Astoria last evening announces the arrival there of the steamer City of Chester. She was to leave As- toria for Portland this morning at 2 o'clock. She will be due here by noon or before.

ADJOURNED.

The Alleghanians.—At the solicitation of numerous citizens the popular troupe enter- tained a large and select audience at Odd Fellows' Hall, East Portland, Saturday evening. To say they go to Oregon City and up the val- ley, taking all the towns of note as far as Rose- burg.

Around the World in 80 Days.—Day after to-morrow Bert's dramatic company, the members of which are to produce the great sensational and scenic play of "Around the World in 80 Days," will sail from San Fran- cisco for Portland. Arriving here a short dramatic season will be inaugurated at New Market theater on the 18th inst. This com- pany will probably number thirty persons—the largest dramatic organization that has ever visited Portland. All the necessary scenery will be brought from San Francisco. In speaking of this company of their presen- tation of this very attractive play, a leading California exchange of a recent date says: "The adaptation of Jules Verne's famous work, entitled 'Around the World in Eighty Days,' will be presented here on Monday evening and runs for five nights only. So much has been said and written about this piece that it is hard to throw any additional light upon it. It represents the adventures of a man who left London to make the round of the globe in eighty days, on a wager of sev- eral thousand pounds. The attractiveness of the piece consists mainly in the rapid transi- tions of scenery, which necessarily represent Eng and, India with the Pagoda of Pillargi, Calcutta, San Francisco with local scenes on California street, Indian attack on the over- land train, the crossing of the Atlantic, storm and shipwreck and the final arrival of Phileas Fogg, the maker of the wager, in London just in time to win. The magnificent scenery is by Voetglin and Wilkens. This play ran eigh weeks at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco."

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Under date of the 8th the following pro- ceedings have been furnished:

The Central Baptist Association of Oregon held its annual session with the Yamhill Bap- tist Church, five miles southwest of McMinn- ville in Yamhill county, commencing on Thursday, June 7.

Rev. Dr. R. C. Hill, of Albany, preached the annual sermon, and Rev. J. W. Osborne, of Scio, was elected moderator, with Rev. C. R. Benson, of Albany, clerk.

The meeting was well attended, and a ses- sion of marked advancement in all depart- ments of Christian work.

A missionary sermon was preached on Fri- day by Rev. J. C. Baker, of California, who is acting as general missionary for the denomi- nation on the coast, under appointment by the American Baptist Publication Society, and the [illegible] of this day was given to the considera- tion of missionary and Sunday school work, with another sermon bearing upon the same subject by Rev. Wm. Carnes, of Victoria, B. C. Plans are being laid to inaugurate a more efficient missionary policy, which will prob- ably be matured before the adjournment of the body on Saturday.

Time was also given to the consideration of the work of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Soc ety of the Pacific coast.

This society is doing a special work in For- eign Missions, namely: sending out lady mis- sionaries and supporting schools and native "Bible women," all operating exclusively among the women and children in heathen homes who are not accessible to the male missionaries sent out by the parent society, "The American Baptist Missionary Union," to whom this woman's society is auxiliary.

The meeting was addressed by Mrs. J. C. Baker, the representative of the society, who is organizing the work among the ladies of Oregon and Washington Territory; also by Mrs J. T. Huff, of Oregon City, and Mrs. Henry Warren, of McMinnville.

A deep interest was created in the work, and a resolution of sympathy with the work and heartily recommending co-operation was unanimously adopted.

The session will continue over Sabbath. The next public meeting of the denomination is that of the "Mt. Pleasant Association," which meets at Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, on Thursday, June 14th.

BRIEF NOTES.

Straw hats and linen coats are in demand.

The steamer Occident will drop down to the Willamette Iron Works this week, where a new shaft will be placed in her.

Mr. Lloyd Brooke has consented to allow the boys to play base ball on his block, pro- vided they do not play on Sunday.

Dean Blanchard is overhauling his little steamer, the Jane West, down the river. Among other improvements a new boiler will be placed in the boat.

There will be a meeting of Multnomah Council of Kadesh this (Monday) evening at their Council Chamber, Masonic Temple, for work in the 30th degree.

Nearly Ninety Degrees

Is what the thermometer marked yesterday. There is but one consolation if the mercury keeps going up at this rate, and that is that Fishel & Roberts are supplied with a splendid line of linen suits, dusters and light thread coats at prices to suit everybody.

Oregon this year will be the banner wheat State, and hopes to rejoice in being the banner Nobby state. Thanks to Millard & Vanschuyver, 39 Front street.

Ladies, if you want a nice cashmere dress go to the Emporium of Fashion of J. Harris & Son.

The Eastern war, as well as Fabre's coffee attracts great attention.

Just who made it holy, what it was made holy for, and in what way it should be observed, will soon be settled to the great relief of the theological as well as infi- del world. It is highly fitting that such questions should be solved in this "city of peace."

A prominent banker, capitalist and Demo- crat, of Indiana, is sojourning for a time in Salem looking over the country with a view to investments, but, buying looked over our constitutional provision that the State debt shall not exceed $50,000, finding said debt largely in excess doubts the good faith of our securities and will not likely transfer his cap- ital until the Republicans get hold of the reins of our State government.

THE TERRITORIES.

Lewiston Teller: At the land office in Lew- iston during the month of May, there were 4 pre-emption cash entries, 29 pre emption de- claratory statements, 15 homestead filings and 19 timber culture entries. Beside the cash entries these filings absorbed 10,080 acres of our good lands.

While working near one of the saws, a belt broke, and he was struck a hard blow in the face with a piece of the leather, throwing him upon the saw. The teeth cut through his right shoulder and collar bone down close to the cavity of the chest, cutting and tearing the flesh as only a circular saw can do. Recov- ery is impossible.

To be Taxed.—The Olympia Transcript of Saturday contains the following:

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company brought suit at the last term of the District Court, restraining Sheriff Billings from mak- ing sale of the company's lands for taxes. The case was argued by H. G. Struve, counsel for the company, and John P. Judson for the people, and was taken under consideration by Judge Greene, who has given an able opin- ion, deciding that the lands owned by the company are subject to taxation, and that the right of way purchased by the company are also subject to taxation.

Disease is an Antagonist

That should be at once the instant he shows him- self. Don't wait. At him before his nails are grown, and wipe him out. The great alterative and invigorant of the age, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will specedily infuse such healthful tone into your organism that it will be enabled to suc- cessfully resist future attacks. The Bitters prevent and remedy chills and fever and bilitious remit- tents, and eradicate dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, rheumatic ailments, urinary and ute- rine difficulties. It is particularly beneficial when the system has been drained of its vitality or is inherently deficient in strength. The nerves gath- er from it both vigor and tranquillity. But while it imparts strength and gives a wholesome stimulus to the animal economy, it does not unduly excite it like the cheap exhilirants sometimes resorted to, under the erroneous impression that they can in- vigorate.

TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering with Nervous and General Debility, Kid- ney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without re- ceiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, per- fectly well, and am able to return to my business on the enchomish.

JAMES KING,

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the Public: I have been troubled with chron- ic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the palate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood ves- sels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have im- mediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer; also the diseased portion of bone, and part of polypus gland and cured the cancer. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.

THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: It is a great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a diffi- culty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care and I can say with delight that I am cured and I feel like myself again, after having par- taken of your skillful treatment. To me now is a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.

Yours Truly, JOHN BALLARD,

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 877.

"CO-OPERATIVE ENTERPRISE."

PORTLAND, June 6, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In to-day's issue of your paper I notice a communication signed "Farmer" under the above heading, wherein the People's Protective Transportation Company receives an encouraging notice, and why I hasten to write this article is to correct a wrong impression that may go out in regard to the company having a considerable sum of money available for a dividend." The company has earned some money over and above running expenses, yet it has some "little bills" to foot which it proposes to meet. The stockholders do not expect a dividend until they begin to carry off the present crop.

And while on this subject I would beg a little more space. The present number of stockholders in Polk and Yamhill counties (for I understand the two have a ready sub-scription in Polk county for and the other boat), is something over five hundred and these men represent three-fourths of the wealth of the two counties, and will have from one hundred thousand to one million dollars surplus of wheat the present year, so you see the enterprise has "backbone."

There seems to be a lull now in the news papers on the transportation question and I do not wish to open it up, but there seems to be a prevailing idea that the farmers are at war with Portland and that Portland is at war with the farmers, that farmers think that Portland gets too much "leakage," etc. in the passage of grain to and from Portland thinking that the farmers intend, eventually to pass by them and load their ships at the seaboard. If either are labor ng under these impressions, we think them erroneous.

In the first place, boats that are made to run into every creek and corner of the Willamette river and its tributaries are not fit to go to Astoria. Besides, the nearer we can get ships to us the better, and the nearer we can get Portland to us the better. We wish Portland was as much longer than it is and in the center of our agricultural district. Then we would have a ready market for nearly all of our saleable products. But suppose Portland were at Astoria or over on the Sound or in San Francisco was our Portland. But perhaps some will say that we have paid enough tribute to San Francisco to get no benefits. Very well, then; if we cannot get Portland any nearer, let us keep it where it is.

Now a little "gratuitous advice" to Portland. Can't you give transportation companies encouragement enough to induce them to land their grain here at a public wharf instead of high rents, tax on wharfingers and everything that touches their grain crying for coin? A little co-operation in this line, I think, would not be bad. There is a limit to extortion. We have a use for Portland. We also have a use for transportation companies. But suppose the big freight rates of last year had continued another year with the short crop and low prices of last year. A calamity more disastrous to the agricultural interests of the Willamette valley could not be readily thought of. The financial condition of the farming classes would have showered tears on many a heart-throne from actual bankruptcy.

Portland can commit suicide, but we don't want it to do so. ONE SHARE.

TREASURY WOMEN.

WHOLESALE REDUCTION IN THE FORCE—SAD SCENES AT THE TIME OF DISMISSAL.

Since the transfer of the engraving and printing work of the treasury department in Washington to a New York bank note company, there have been hundreds of dismissals in the bureau, mostly of female employes. Grace Greenwood writes bitterly of it to the New York Tribune. She says: What shall we do with the fathers and mothers suddenly deprived of employment, and the multitudes of poor children brought face to face with cruel want? The discouragement, the dire straits, the almost distraction of good people, honest, faithful people at our very doors, move us more, it must be confessed, than the distant woes of Christians in Turkey or Turks in extremis. Upon my word I can see little hope for relief for these, our dismissed public servants, except in a good old-fashioned pestilence. A tidal wave is sometimes a good outlet for surplus population, but that would carry away the fortunate with the unfortunate, heads of threads, placemongers, contractors, and civil service reformers and informers, which were a loss the republic could hardly survive, whereas your pestilence searches and signals out the unhappy, the hopeless, the hungry, and makes short work with them. It would take off the discouraged, the discharged soldiers of that same civil service, by the platoon, and leave few widows and children to be pensioned—if there were such things as pensions for such as they. Terrible scenes are said to have taken place in the Treasury Department during the official massacres last month and the first of this. Indeed, every day is the day of doom for some poor wretch or wretches. One of these scenes is thus described by a Washington paragraphist, in a style suggesting the Newgate calendar and the bloody record of the conciergerie:

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the doorkeeper of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing received orders to allow no one to enter, and then preparations for the impending executions began in earnest. The cashiers were produced, and all the employes were required to remain until the sad work was finished. The head of each division was presented with the names of the victims under his charge, and also with the money necessary to settle their claims for salaries up to date. The scene was a very affecting one as the roll was called, and each unfortunate signed his or her name with trembling hands. The sights presented were varied, however. The impending danger had steeled the hearts of some to meet whatever fate awaited them, but others broke down completely.

The artist goes on to state that some women cried and sobbed and even fainted, and some broke out in wild exclamations, malapropos and out of place, such as appeals to God to help them. One lady asked with indignant surprise, "Do you know who I am? I am the cousin of President Hayes!" and threatened the headsman with punishment for his unjust act. Another—a poor widow who had lost husband, father and brother in the late war—is described as having signed her name with soldierly calmness, but as soon after breaking down in the most pusillanimous way, wringing her hands and crying, "This, then, is my reward for all I have sacrificed." This is the woman of it, and such examples of feminine weakness and sentimentality and obstinate hanging on to dead claims go to prove, I admit that women are unfit, constitutionally and logically for positions under the stern reform government, as to day. Consanguinity does not count for so much now as under some administration as it has counted; yet I should like to know, if the fair lady-woman of President Hayes has been robbed. I hope she has. A President in a family now and then ought to be a good thing. People should be encouraged in raising them. As for the spectacle, ghastly, of the widows of Union soldiers, you see, as a high official said to one of them the other day, "That thing is played out." A sort of poetic, melancholy sentiment, like mourning weeds, once hung about these sad victims of a great struggle for the life of the nation; but now they are so many obstructions on the track of what is called civil service reform, and they must give way or go under and be crushed. Their necessary destruction doubtless gives pain to officials who hate a scene. A certain railroad conductor, though hardened by long experience on the lightning express, once said:

"I hate to run over and smash people; it musses up my track so."

Now it is announced that Secretary Sherman is resolved to put into thorough operation the State apportionment rule, so long a dead letter, which would throw overboard some two thousand or more of experienced clerks and employes of all sorts. If this pitiless programme shall be carried out, I really think there will be revolt and riots in Washington among the class now most peaceable and orderly. We shall need to "call for the millingtary," like so many Noah Claypoles or carpet-bag governors.

O, that my tongue were in the thunder's mouth.

I would cry to all worthy working women, to all energetic, honorable men seeking an opening for talent, a field for honest industry, keep away from Washington! Avoid the place as fearfully as though every department of government were a pest house—as though Congress, instead of beneficially legislating, were doing actively business in all the plagues of Egypt.

Clay and Buchanan.—Henry Clay, one day in debate, took occasion to rebuke the Democrats for not coming out and defining their position. "Let us hear from you," he said in his clarion tones. "I call for the leaders of the party." Mr. Buchanan, at once rose and declared that he was prompt in expressing his opinions on questions before the Senate, but that he chose to take his own time for speaking. "Mr. President," replied Mr. Clay in a provokingly coo manner, "the Senator from Pennsylvania labors under a mistake, if he was not alluded to. Far from it, Mr. President; I called for the leaders of the party." Mr. Buchanan was very angry and appealed to the Senate whether the Senator from Kentucky had not fixed his eyes upon him and addressed his remarks to him? "Perhaps," Mr. President," remarked Mr. Clay, "I can explain how the Senator from Pennsylvania fell into this error. I often suppose that he is looking at me when he is really looking the other way." A roar of laughter greeted this allusion to Buchanan's obliquity of vision.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

SATURDAY EVENING, June 9, 1877.

Gold in New York, 100¾.

Legal Tenders in Portland—buying 94 sell 95.

Silver Coin—1½@5 per cent. discount.

The financial situation in local circles is essentially unchanged and we shall probably witness the quiet condition of affairs and uneven smooth current in the money market until the incoming of the new grain crop. Borrowers are not numerous in the market and are met on the usual terms. The preparations apparent do not warrant the belief that shipments will be brisk during the first months of the coming harvest year.

Tonnage.

On the 1st inst. there were in port at San Francisco 9,514 tons under engagement to load wheat, 9,071 tons at Queenstown, and 38,426 tons disengaged.

Quotations for wheat vessels at this time from this port are about 45 and from San Francisco 42 7s@£1 10s. At this time we quote wooden vessels for wheat at £2 7s 6d@2 10s to Cork, U.K. but it is possible that American ships would refuse either figure in view of the prospect of European complications and the fact that the new cereal year will soon commence. British iron ships are generally out of the market under instructions from owners. The improved prospect of the crop has stiffened the tone of the freight market. Some estimates by reliable parties place the surplus for export next year at from 225,000@250,000 tons from California, and 150,000 tons from Oregon. If these figures are reliable we shall not be overburdened with tonnage, and if England is drawn into the Turco-Russian war all neutral flags would command high rates of freight.

Since the taking of the City of Amoy, noticed several days ago, we have heard of no other engagements for the Oregon trade.

Produce Exports.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Increasing European demand for American produce is indicated by the fact that to-day's steamers take full cargoes, including 101,000 bushels grain, 1,100 boxes bacon, 2,300 boxes cheese, 3,000 packages and 4,400 boxes butter, 1,600 quarters fresh beef.

Boston Market.

BOSTON, June 9.—Flour dull; depressed; holders willing to make concessions. Wheat dull, inactive; neglected; low grades less heavy, better grades firm; market closing firm; quiet. Hides quiet unchanged; 500 California kips sold private. Wool, business light but better tone to the market. California quiet; no change; improved demand; holders being less anxious to realize sales of 40,000 lbs at 20.

San Francisco Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Wheat—Shipping, $2 30@2 35; milling, $2 35@2 45.

Barley—Feed, $1 52½@1 67½; brewing, $1 60@1 65.

Corn—$1 70@1 72½.

Oats—$1 90@2 20.

Potatoes—75c@1¼.

Gold—100⅞; Greenbacks, 94¼@95; Silver, 6@6¼ discount.

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship City of Chester, from San Francisco, is in the river, and will arrive Monday about noon.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Arrived—Str. Geo. W. Elder, Astoria; schr Greyhound, Tahiti.

Sailed—Brig Hesperian, Honolulu; bark Northwest, Port Madison; brig King Phillip, Port Gamble; schr Gotama, Coos Bay; schr W. L. Beebe, Port Blakely.

Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers,

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils.

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INVITED to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colozo," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils is sufficient commendation as to its quality. It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp, it being of too heavy gravity for such use, but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction, producing a pure flame of great brilliancy. Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to the use of these Oils on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows:

"Any Oil which will stand a Fire Test of Three Hundred (300°) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight on used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers."

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colozza Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable:

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

[COPY.] BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 19th, 1876

A sample of burning Oil, marked Mineral Colozo, manufactured by CHARLES PRATT & Co., of New York City, has been tested by me with the following result: It has a fire test of 328° Fahrenheit. It does not ignite under 328° F.

(Signed) S. DANA HAYES,
Massachusetts State Assayer.

Report of Inspector of Petroleum Oil, for State of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, October 4th 1876.

[COPY.]

I have tested samples of Mineral Colozo Oil, from CHARLES PRATT & Co., New York City, and find the igniting point or Fire Test to be 315° Fahrenheit. (Signed) E. F. MILANS, Mass. State Inspector of Petroleum.

Report on Sample of Mineral Colozo Oil, Tested for U. S. Inspector of Steamers 2d District.

[COPY.] NEW YORK, April 25th, 1876.

Mr. ADDISON LOW, U. S. Sub. Inspector.

DEAR SIR: We have tested the sample of Mineral Colozo Oil presented by you, and find it stands a Fire Test of 300° Fahrenheit, and we consider it in all respects a very superior Oil.

(Signed) LOCKWOOD, BROS. & HOLLY,
Petroleum Inspectors appointed by N. Y. City Produce Exchange.

To the Trade.

The undersigned beg to call your attention to all of the above, and thus advise you that they will at all times have a full supply of the above mentioned goods on hand, and would be pleased to have your orders.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1877.

QUITE A PLAIN MATTER.

It is one of the infirmities of an earnest and exclusive partisanship that it is unable to perceive and acknowledge a fact that tells against its interests. In this the partisan is not always intentionally wrong; but his devotion to his cause impels him to search for arguments to support it, and to pass over without due examination the facts that would make against him. This weakness has always been perceived. A remark upon it is put by an old historian into the mouth of an observer of certain political transactions, who said "it was evident there was a rule of morals, of judgment and of action in party affairs far different from that which prevailed in all the other concerns of life"; and Lecky, a recent writer of large scope and deep penetration, in a chapter on political morals, has an observation that runs to the same purpose, though put in somewhat different form. These writers only state a permanent trait of human nature. To admit nothing against party interest; to suppress, conceal, or try to explain away facts that may be hurtful to the party whose cause they espouse, is a habit which many journals among us still pursue. Here at hand, for instance, is a paper which asserts in substance that no considerable indebtedness has been created for our State since 1870. True, the figures show otherwise; true, the Governor reported various items of liability last year to the legislative assembly, amounting to nearly three-quarters of a million dollars, exclusive of interest, which would materially augment the sum; true, the assets of the State—that is to say, cash in the treasury—would nearly have paid its debts in 1870, excepting about ninety thousand dollars of bounty bonds. But there is an intrepidity that meets all this with ambiguous explanation or flat denial, and supposes that the whole case is fully answered. An attempt is made to put out of sight the lock bonds, the wagon road bonds, the Modoc war bonds, and other items of indebtedness; and finally to charge the outstanding State warrants to the account of a preceding administration, without giving that administration credit for the cash turned over to its successors. This method will never satisfy the people. They know that those portions of the debt which are not to be paid by direct taxation, nevertheless must be paid out of the resources of the State, which comes to precisely the same thing in the end. These, therefore, are part of the State's liabilities. It is therefore disingenuous to deny that the State owes a large sum of money. As we have heretofore stated, Gov. Grover reported at the last session of the legislature debts of various kinds amounting to $717,197 32, which will be greatly increased by accruing interest, and in all probability by deficiencies, against the next meeting of the legislature. Some think the whole amount will be nearly a million dollars; but put it at three-quarters of a million, and it is large enough. To assert in the interest of party that this fact is "exploded" is not only to discredit public intelligence, but to question the official reports made by the head of the party in the interest of which the denial of indebtedness is made. This is really qu te a plain matter, and no attempt to juggle with figures in order to confuse or disprove it, will avail.

NOTES DISCORDANT.

It has been announced by telegraph that President Hayes was greatly pleased with Senator Morton's letter. But by many newspapers that sustain the President and admire his policy the letter is bitterly assailed. Even the National Republican makes an attack upon it. So long as Grant was President that paper was clamorous for military rule in the South. But when Hayes entered the White House it immediately became an admirer of the opposite policy. Certain observers of events at Washington profess to know that Hayes was not great y pleased with Morton's letter after all; considering it, as the Philadelphia Times does not scruple to call it, "a studied and subtle attack on his policy." And they say, too, that a double-leaded editorial in the National Republican, an extract from which is given below, was published by that paper as a criticism upon the letter and its author, in order to please the President and to present a reflection of his views without bringing on him any responsibility therefor. This may be considered an apocryphal story; but it is curious to note the savagery of the Republican's attack on Morton's letter, and in connection with it the assumption of Washington correspondents that it was inspired from the White House. Evidently that paper supposed it was doing the President a service when it attacked the letter and its author in this slashing style:

> Among the things both painful and amusing to witness is to see a prominent politician cast on a shoal in the straits of public opinion, not knowing whither to direct his craft, and then to note his terror, trepidation and tergiversations. Just such an exhibition we have been treated to in the ground and lofty tumbling of Senator Morton in the political arena. Big with presidential aspirations, and and fearing either to speak or keep silent lest utterance or silence shall destroy his prospects, after months of anxiety he breaks forth, as has always been done in such cases from time immemorial, in strains to please ears prone to every sense. He comes rushing into the ring attempting to ride two horses, each cavorting in different directions, flying the pale flag of peace and the ensanguined shirt and playing the harp of a thousand strings. Determined to be on every side and to be the champion of every view, he declares himself to be in full sympathy with the President in the end sought to be obtained by his policy, while he solemnly protests in every word he speaks that the means adopted to secure the end were wicked in their indifference to the wants and welfare of the Republican party and the majority of the States surrendered to the Democratic party.

The Murphy temperance movement is making great progress in Eastern cities, and is accomplishing real good. It proceeds on a much more rational system than the crusading movement of three years ago, which simply reversed the order of reform. The present effort is to reclaim the drinkers and to enforce by various influences a pledge of abstinence; the former effort was a war on the liquor dealers, and really accomplished nothing. It has occurred to those who are guiding the present movement that it is a far more effective method of temperance work to reform the drinkers than to fight the sellers; and their success proves it. Most of the effort expended in the crusading way was so much energy wasted. The only way to decrease the number of liquor dealers is to decrease the number of buyers and consumers. It would be impossible even for liquor sellers to make objection to this method of temperance reform. Francis Murphy began at Pittsburg several months ago. He was once the most intemperate of men, but triumphed over his degradation and became an advocate of the temperance cause. He possesses a fascinating manner, a lively imagination and singular power of speech, all of which qualities he employs in a way that produces a very great effect on an audience. Realizing the fact that makers and sellers of liquors wouldn't be in the business unless they were supported by the consumers, he directs his appeals to this latter class. Others have taken up this form and phase of the work, and an impulse seems to be given to genuine temperance reform in Eastern cities.

Last year the National Board of Fire Underwriters at New York resolved to ascertain as nearly as possible the sum which the fire insurance companies of the United States had to pay for losses occasioned by the use of fireworks and fire-crackers on the Fourth of July. The range of inquiry included nearly all the cities and towns in which risks are carried. It was ascertained that the Fourth of July, 1876, was a remarkably lucky one, as losses by fire from this cause did not reach half a million dollars. Of 813 companies doing business in the United States, 489 reported payments of losses arising from this nuisance and foolery amounting to $154,574. But heretofore the rate has been far more destructive. Since January, 1865, the destruction of property traceable directly to fire-works used on the national anniversary has been twenty millions of dollars, while the whole value of fireworks of American manufacture sold since that period has been but $2,656,000, and the invoice value of all imported has been less than $1,500,000. The loss occasioned in this way has therefore exceeded by five-fold the entire value of the dangerous article that produced it. Every dollar's-worth of fire crackers imported into the country, the underwriters say, has caused a direct loss by fire of more than one hundred dollars; and the inquiry is pertinently made whether this is not a severe tax on owners of property and on insurance companies, for the gratification of juvenile patriotism. The approach of another Fourth of July makes this subject a timely one. The report before us declares the explosion of crackers and the combustion of fireworks an irrational mode of celebrating the day. But these things are mainly designed for the gratification of children, and from the standpoint of mature years all juvenile amusements may be pronounced irrational.

It is contended by the Mountaineer that the fishery at the Dalles and that at Deschutes are not a danger at all to the future supply of fish. At his "trap" on Deschutes Mr. Shearer intends to take only eighteen hundred fish, and the company at the Dalles will put up this season only five hundred half barrels, say six thousand fish in all. Such a number is insignificant when compared with those on the lower river. So far the Mountaineer is right. But the main point we had in view when noticing this subject on a former occasion was to call attention to the danger that would follow if extensive fisheries were established at the narrow points along the river, where nearly every fish could be taken. The present small fisheries there will make no visible impression on the supply, and the people have the same right to take the fish as those who are in the business on the river at points below. But nobody ought to be allowed to select points on the river where the fish cannot escape, and then catch all he can. A Dalles paper reported that one man recently took out five hundred at one of these places in a single afternoon. If this were followed up by a large company employing many men and prepared to make the most of the opportunity, how long would there be any salmon in the river?

In a well-known case from Nevada, appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, it is held that the ores or products of mines are subject to taxation as all other descriptions of property. The tax was resisted on the ground that the title to the land from which the mineral was taken belonged to the United States, and the parties were mining the ore by permission of the laws. The Court, overruling this plea, stated the doctrine thus: "When the ore becomes detached from the soil in which it is imbedded it becomes personal property, the ownership of which is in the man whose labor, capital and skill has discovered and developed the mine and extricated the ore. It is then free from any lien, claim or title of the United States, and is rightfully subject to taxation by the State as any other personal property is."

Chicago is making great progress in contending with St. Louis for the trade of the Southwest. Passengers now go through without change of cars from Chicago to Galveston, and the managers of a single road run two hundred cars a day, exclusive of sleepers and passenger coaches, out of Chicago for different points in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas.

There are now forty steamboats on the upper Missouri, mostly in the Montana trade.

OFFICE OF INSURANCE COMMISSIONER,
San Francisco, Feb. 5, 1877.

I, J. W. Foard, hereby certify that I am Insurance Commissioner of the State of California, and have supervision of insurance business in the State, and as such Commissioner, further certify that the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California is a corporation properly organized under the laws of this State, and being in a solvent condition and possessed of a paid up capital of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, equal to Gold Coin of the United States, is authorized to do business in the State. And I further certify that, upon a personal examination of the books and papers of the said company at the close of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six, its statement as of this date, and now on file in this office, was shown to be correct and true, the company being possessed of good, valid assets amounting to one million two hundred and sixty-four thousand eight hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty six cents* ($1,264,836 86), and having outstanding liabilities, as defined by the laws of the State, amounting to nine hundred and sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and five cents ($916,750 05) exclusive of the Capital Stock.

L.S. As witness my hand and official seal, the day and year first above written.

J. W. FOARD,
Insurance Commissioner.

[Extract from Report of A. B. Smith, ex-Deputy Insurance Commissioner.]

J. G. EDWARDS, Publisher Coast Review.

Dear Sir:—In pursuance of your request I have made an examination of the Assets and Liabilities of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, as they existed on the 31st day of December, 1876, as shown by the books and papers of the Company, and as a result of such examination I beg to report as follows:

Total Assets, Gold	$1,281,847 59
Re-Insurance Reserve, American Experience, 4½ per ct.	$886,031 40
Claims for Death Losses	28,700 00
Due on Account Salaries and Rents	2,019 02
Total Liabilities, Gold	916,750 51
Net surplus to Policy-holders, Gold	$365,097 08
Company's paid-up Capital	$100,000 00

The above is, I believe, a true and fair statement of the Company's condition Dec. 31, 1876.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I found the Company's business thoroughly systematized—its books and papers in excellent condition and neatly kept. Every facility was extended to me by all the officers and employees of the Company to enable me to make my examination thorough. Books, papers, and accounts were freely exhibited to me. There was no attempt to hold back or conceal anything. I am satisfied the Company courts the most rigid scrutiny. For courteous treatment, I beg to return thanks to the officers and attaches of the Company.

Respectfully submitted, A. B. SMITH,
San Francisco, February 5, 1877.

*Commissioner Foard excludes items of assets not admitted under the laws of California, amounting to $17,010 73.

CITY.

DROWNED.—Henry Jellinger, a lad 6 years old son of Mr. Wm. Dellinger, fell from the wharf at the rear of the American Exchange Hotel, last Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, and was drowned. In company with two other lads, Henry was playing at the foot of Washington street. There is one gangway at the point where the steamers land which is now afloat on account of the high water. Henry was out walking on the gangway, boy like, showing his companions how courageous he could be. Having reached the end of the gangway, the venturesome lad stepped off on to some pieces of timber which projected to the top of the piles, (the floor having been washed away,) and began to play along them. While so doing, he lost his balance and fell into the water. His companions heard him fall, but, strange to say, did not raise the alarm. Some time elapsed, when the gentleman who clerks on the wharf, who was in the office at the time engaged in writing, happened to overhear one of the boys say to his companion that "Henry Dellinger was drowned." He ran out of the office and on reaching the end of the gangway discovered a hat floating under the wharf. Procuring a hook the clerk began to grapple for the body, which he was fortunate to soon recover. Life was extinct, and all efforts to resuscitate the body proved of no avail. No inquest was held as Coroner DeJin deemed it unnecessary. Henry was a bright, handsome boy, and his parents are inconsolable over their bereavement.

DEATH OF DR. SLOAN.—After a painful and protracted illness of many weeks Dr. T. J. Sloan, a practicing physician of this city, departed this life at the residence of his brother, Dr. Joseph Sloan, at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. His disease was the result of engorgement of the liver and abscess of the stomach. Up to the hour of his death he was perfectly conscious, and seemed well aware of the time of his departure from these earthly scenes had fully come. Dr. Sloan came to Port and in 1868, and has resided here continually ever since, with the exception of a few months. Politicly he was a very ardent Republican, and generally took an active interest in political affairs. He had a very excellent war record. In 1862 he raised a regiment in Chicago and went into the service of the United States as colonel of the 134th Reg ment, Illinois volunteers, and fought until near the close of the war. At the time of his death, Dr. Sloan was over 60 years old. He leaves two children, both of whom reside in the States. Although he was possessed of a peculiar temperament and sometimes personal habits, yet he was ever generous and generous—a man against whose honor and truth in public and private life not one word could be uttered. His death will be sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.—The Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons, now in session in this city, installed the following officers Saturday afternoon to serve for the ensuing year: R. Lee, M. E. G. H. Priest; J. B. Congle, D. G. H. Priest; F. J. Babcock, S. G. King; P. W. Shurtleff, S. G. Scribe; R. P. Earhart, G. C. of C.; C. H. Lewis, E. G. Treas.; D. P. Thomas, G. Lecturer; J. H. Evans, G. C. of H.; Jas. R. N. Bell, G. Chap.; Theo. Graham, G. R.; M. V. Brown, G. R. A. C.; Enoch Noah, G. M. 3d V.; B. F. Goodwin, G. M. 2d V.; R. D. Sloat, G. M. 1st V.; A. P. DeLin, G. Sentinel.

AT INSPECT THE MINES.—Mr. Jos. Openheimer will start up the Columbia river this morning en route for an extended trip to Colville and vicinity. At Wallula he will meet Mr. ——, a very scientific mining expert, who left San Francisco some time ago for Oregon, and will be engaged a thorough examination of the various ledges in Baker county, in the interest of capitalists. These gentlemen will then proceed in company to Colville, for the purpose of personally inspecting the recent placer discoveries in that region. Mr. Opp will be absent some time.

LADD'S BANK OF OREGON.—The Evening Telegram says: "We learn from pretty good authority that Mr. Edwin Russell, late manager of the bank of British Columbia in this city, is now forming a bank in London under the name of the London Bank of Oregon, Limited, with a capital of $2,000,000, with branch offices in this city, Albany, Walla Walla and Astoria. The directors are all London gentlemen of prominence, connected with business interests with Oregon. The head office is to be in London and the general office in Portland."

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, June 10, 1877:

ABBREVIATION.—A misunderstanding took place Saturday evening at the time of the ball at the White House which came near resulting very seriously. Mr. T. J. Robinson and W. J. Tennant had some difference that led to very high words, which culminated in the latter dealing the former a heavy blow on the head with a piece of iron. Fortunately Mr. Robinson's injuries are not serious. Parties interfered and put a stop to what might have resulted in the death of one or both of the combatants.

DOCK.—Work at the Willamette Iron Works has been unusually lively of late. A 4,000 gallon boiler has been completed for the Pioneer Oil Co., of Salem. A 40 inch Parker & Morris Turbine Water Wheel, for George & Shepard, of Forest Grove, will be shipped this week. Machinery for Keil & Co.'s great mill at Aurora is nearly finished.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the rooms of the Association Monday evening, June 11th, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested. The monthly meeting of the Board of Managers will convene after the adjournment of the association meeting.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.—Saturday a young man named James Allen Wright departed this life at Good Samaritan Hospital of consumption, after a lingering illness. Deceased was in the 28th year of his age. To-day the remains will be forwarded to Oregon City for interment.

LOADING WITH SALMON.—The ship Isle of Wight is now down the river loading with salmon for Europe. Last week the vessel laid three days at the wharf at Rainier and took on 1,000 cases of salmon at that point. She will take on more salmon at other points along the Columbia.

ASHORE.—While the steamer Orient was ascending the Willamette Saturday with a full cargo she grounded at McCloskey Chute, some distance below Salem. Owing to this accident the steamer failed to reach here yesterday. No damage resulted to the boat or cargo.

FRUIT DRYER.—Mr. J. H. Lambert, of Milwaukie, one of the oldest and most extensive fruit growers in Oregon, is erecting a fruit drying factory on his farm, which is to be supplied exclusively with the Plummer new patent dryers.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.—Last Saturday the lots on the corner of North Ninth and Stark streets were sold at auction. Dr. McKimmell was the purchaser, and the price was $1,445. The bidding was spirited, and Kilbourn had a lively matinee.

EXAMINATION.—Examinations at the Bishop Scott Grammar School will be as follows today: 9 to 11, English Grammar, Mr. Grant; 11 to 12, Greek, Mr. Burton; 1 to 3, English History, Mr. Burton; 3 to 4, Greek, Mr. Burton.

EXEMPT FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—There will be a regular meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association at the Police Court room at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

BURGLARS ARRESTED.

Saturday Chief Lappeus received a dispatch from Chief Ellis, of San Francisco, conveying the welcome intelligence that two men had been arrested there who were connected with the commission of three burglaries. We refer to the robbery of the Abalone shell jewelry in Monnastes' store many weeks ago, the burglary of the store of Bailey, Gatzert & Co., Seattle, and the robbery of the N. P. R. R. Co.'s safe at Kalama a few weeks ago. The names of the parties apprehended are Henry Schlitz, alias Henry, alias St. Clair, and Doc Fitzgerald, alias Doc O'Brine. The party first named was in this city some time ago, where he sailed under the names of Henry, alias St. Clair. He is the same enterprising young man who was engaged here in circulating lead pipe for $20 silver rolls. He was arrested, it will remembered, and sent to the city jail for five days for vagrancy. Fitzgerald came from the Sound, and so far as is known, never was in Portland. During the time Henry was in this city and prior to his arrest, he (probably with the assistance of an accomplice), undoubtedly entered the store of Mr. Monnastes on First street, and carried away Mr. R. W. Jackson's entire stock of Abalone jewelry. After his arrest and conviction for vagrancy, he was released on the promise that he would leave the city "for keeps." Tuesday night, May 22d, the safe of the N. P. R. R. Co., at Kalama was broken into and the contents carried away. Monday, the preceding day, Henry was seen on the streets of Portland by Chief Lappeus, who reminded him of his promise. Henry told him he was going to leave here for certain the next morning; that he was going to Albany. He did leave next morning, but went down to Kalama, where, by a manifest preconcerted arrangement he met Fitzgerald, who came somewhere from the Sound. These persons were seen in the brush Tuesday about one mile below Kalama by Dr. Whitehouse and Mr. Patterson. Monday a young man came into the railroad company's office at Kalama and inquired for work. He remained about the office for some time, evidently acquainting himself with the premises. He was also seen in the machine shop at that place. Some tools were taken from the shop which were subsequently found in the brush where these men were seen. The name of the third person connected with this robbery is, as yet, unknown. After committing the robbery, Fitzgerald and his friend of numerous aliases procured a boat and started for Astoria. Officer McCoy was sent down by Chief Lappeus to work up the case, but did not reach Astoria until Thursday. He traced the boat from point to point as far as Pillar Rock where he lost track. He supposed then that the men had started to Unity, intending to reach, if possible, Gray's Harbor, and so escape in that direction. But he was mistaken; and while endeavoring to trace them up, they took the San Francisco steamer and eluded his clutches. However, "Mac" came very near getting them after all, and had not the plunger in which he was coming over to Astoria been becalmed several hours, he would have reached there in time to nip the scoundrels. When he found that they had given him the slip, he telegraphed at once to Chief Ellis, who bagged the game soon after the arrival of the steamer. On searching their baggage, that officer found $480 in gold notes, all the Abalone jewelry lost by Mr. Jackson, and also a lot of other jewelry, which was identified as belonging to Bailey, Gatzert & Co., of Seattle. The evidence against these fellows is most conclusive, and escape from the consequences of their crimes seems impossible. A requisition will be forwarded and they will be brought here. Doubtless other persons are connected with Fitzgerald and Henry in the three crimes, and no effort will be spared by the authorities to bring to condign punishment all the guilty parties. To Officer McCoy much credit is due for the manner in which he worked the case up.

PICNICS.

GERMAN SCHOOL.—Yesterday a large number of pupils connected with the Independent German School, and parents and parons, repaired to Canyon Garden. A very pleasant time was experienced by the children and those who cannot be called children.

EAST PORTLAND PARK.—This favorite place was visited yesterday by hundreds of persons, the occasion being the annual picnic given there by the Emmet Guard. During the day dancing and games were indulged in, and a general good time experienced. Dancing and promenading continued up to a late hour last evening. The day's receipts were quite substantial.

HIBERNIAN PICNIC.—This old and highly esteemed organization are making extensive arrangements for holding a grand picnic on the Fourth of July. At first the committee having the affair under charge contemplated giving the picnic at a point some distance from the city. However, after thoroughly considering the matter, they concluded to lease East Portland Park and hold the picnic there. The committee propose to make several important improvements to the grounds, among other things, enlarge the dancing platform and cover it with canvas. Every arrangement will be made which can possibly contribute to the pleasure of the crowds who will doubtless attend. The Northwestern Band has been employed, which is a guaranty that good music will be furnished. There will be a display of fireworks in the evening, and dancing will be continued until 10 o'clock. No effort or expense will be spared to make the affair thoroughly enjoyable and in every particular worthy of patronage. The committee having entire management of the affair are composed of the following gentlemen: Thomas Kearney, Frank Gatens and Wm. J. Quirk.

WILLOW WIELDERS.

An interesting game of base ball was played on the Pioneer grounds Saturday afternoon, between the Athletic and Mutual base ball clubs. This was the second and decisive game between the two clubs, the Athletics having won the last game by a score of 41 to 15 runs. In this game the Athletics came off victorious by 8 runs. There was some excellent playing done by both clubs. The game was played with ten men on each side. The day was very warm, but the game was still warmer. The score stood—Athletics, 31; Mutuals, 23. Mr. Al. Oliver acted as umpire. The Athletics caught the following flies: Effinger, 3; Carry, 2; Giltner, 3; Holcomb, 2; Parsons, 3; Watkins, 2; Winnie, 1. Mutuals—Hamilton, 1; Jones, 1; Capen, 1; Leahigh, 2; Clopton, 3; Holmes, 2. Flies muffed—Mutuals: Clopton, 2; Jones, 1; Capen, 1; Leahigh, 1; Holmes, 1. Athletics—Giltner, 1; Winnie, 1. Total—Athletics caught 16, muffed 2. Mutuals caught 10, muffed 6. The Athletics are going to challenge the East Portland club for next Saturday, the 16th inst.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The trustees, Ladies' Aid Society, and members generally, of East Portland M. E. church, wish to express their unanimous and hearty thanks to Mrs. Dr. I. Dillon, for the conception of plan and happy carrying out of details of the late excursion to the Cascades, by which successful enterprise so large a sum was realized with which to liquidate the debt on said church.

STEAMER.—A dispatch from Astoria last evening announces the arrival there of the steamer City of Chester. She was to leave Astoria for Portland this morning at 2 o'clock. She will be due here by noon or before.

President Hayes' Southern policy is disturbing everybody more or less, and Barnes' lunches give great satisfaction.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE ALLEGHANIANS.—At the solicitation of numerous citizens this popular troupe entertained a large and select audience at Odd Fellows' Hall, East Portland, Saturday evening. To-day they go to Oregon City and up the valley, taking all the towns of note as far as Roseburg.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS.—Day after to-morrow Bert's dramatic company, the members of which are to produce the great sensational and scenic play of "Around the World in 80 Days," will sail from San Francisco for Portland. Arriving here a short dramatic season will be inaugurated at New Market theater on the 18th inst. This company will probably number thirty persons—the largest dramatic organization that has ever visited Portland. All the necessary scenery will be brought from San Francisco. In speaking of this company of their presentation of this very attractive play, a leading California exchange of a recent date says: "The adaptation of Jules Verne's famous work, entitled 'Around the World in Eighty Days,' will be presented here on Monday evening and runs for five nights only. So much has been said and written about this piece that it is hard to throw any additional light upon it. It represents the adventures of a man who left London to make the round of the globe in eighty days, on a wager of several thousand pounds. The attractiveness of the piece consists mainly in the rapid transitions of scenery, which necessarily represent England, India with the Pagoda of Pillargi, Calcutta, San Francisco with local scenes on California street, Indian attack on the overland train, the crossing of the Atlantic, storm and shipwreck and the final arrival of Phileas Fogg, the maker of the wager, in London just in time to win. The magnificent scenery is by Voetglin and Wilkens. This play ran eight weeks at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco."

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Under date of the 8th the following proceedings have been furnished:

The Central Baptist Association of Oregon held its annual session with the Yamhill Baptist Church, five miles southwest of McMinnville in Yamhill county, commencing on Thursday, June 7.

Rev. Dr. R. C. Hill, of Albany, preached the annual sermon, and Rev. J. W. Osborne, of Scio, was elected moderator, with Rev. C. R. Mattson, of Albany, clerk.

The meeting was well attended, and a session of marked advancement in all departments of Christian work.

A missionary sermon was preached on Friday by Rev. J. C. Baker, of California, who is acting as general missionary for the denomination on the coast, under appointment by the American Baptist Publication Society, and the whole of this day was given to the consideration of missionary and Sunday school work, with another sermon bearing upon the same subject by Rev. Wm. Carnes, of Victoria, B. C. Plans are being laid to inaugurate a more efficient missionary policy, which will probably be matured before the adjournment of the body on Saturday.

Time was also given to the consideration of the work of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Society of the Pacific coast.

This society is doing a special work in Foreign Missions, namely: sending out lady missionaries and supporting schools and native "Bible women," all operating exclusively among the women and children in heathen homes who are not accessible to the male missionaries sent out by the parent society, "The American Baptist Missionary Union," to whom this womans' society is auxiliary.

The meeting was addressed by Mrs. J. C. Baker, the representative of the society, who is organizing the work among the ladies of Oregon and Washington Territory; also by Mrs. J. T. Huff, of Oregon City, and Mrs. Henry Warren, of McMinnville.

A deep interest was created in the work, and a resolution of sympathy with the work and heartily recommending co-operation was unanimously adopted.

The session will continue over Sabbath. The next public meeting of the denomination is that of the "Mt. Pleasant Association," which meets at Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, on Thursday, June 14th.

BRIEF NOTES.

Straw hats and linen coats are in demand.

The steamer Occident will drop down to the Willamette Iron Works this week, where a new shaft will be placed in her.

Mr. Lloyd Brooke has consented to allow the boys to play base ball on his block, provided they do not play on Sunday.

Dean Blanchard is overhauling his little steamer, the Jane West, down the river. Among other improvements a new boiler will be placed in the boat.

There will be a meeting of Multnomah Council of Kadesh this (Monday) evening at the Council Chamber, Masonic Temple, for work in the 30th degree.

Nearly Ninety Degrees

Is what the thermometer marked yesterday. There is but one consolation if the mercury keeps going up at this rate, and that is that Fisher & Roberts are supplied with a splendid line of linen suits, dusters and light thread coats at prices to suit everybody.

Oregon this year will be the banner wheat State, and hopes to rejoice in being the banner Noble Whisky State. Thanks to Millard & Vanschuyver, 39 Front street.

Ladies, if you want a nice cashmere dress go to the Emporium of Fashion of J. Harris & Son.

The Eastern war, as well as Fabre's coffee attracts great attention.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. The "Sunday question" is the all absorbing topic of conversation, lectures and sermons at the Capitol. Just who made it holy, what it was made holy for, and in what way it should be observed, will soon be settled to the great relief of the theological as well as infidel world. It is highly fitting that such questions should be solved in this "city of peace."

A prominent banker, capitalist and Democrat, of Indiana, is sojourning for a time in Salem looking over the country with a view to investments, &c., having looked over our constitutional provision that the State debt shall not exceed $50,000, finding said debt largely in excess, doubts the good faith of our securities and will not likely transfer his capital until the Republicans get hold of the reins of our State government.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Seattle Coal Company will ship 11,000 tons this month.

A new company has been organized to complete the Olympia and Tenino railroad. The old company sells the grade and all rights for $15,000. The latest talk is for narrow gauge.

Nine cases of smallpox are reported in Port Orchard bay as having proved fatal. Only one white person has had the disease, the others being Indians. The Dispatch reports a case or two at Seattle.

W. P. Thompson some time ago tendered his resignation as register of the land office at Boise City, to take effect on the 31st of May. Edward McTimoney, of the District of Columbia, has been appointed as his successor.

The hearing of the complaint against Harry Sutton, before Justice Learned, at Port Townsend, ended in his being held for murder at the September term of the district court. His accomplice was also held for trial at the same time, as an accessory.

The Transcript complains that a large number of pardons have been granted by the executive of Washington Territory during the few years past, so much so that the term "pardon brokers" has become a by-word throughout the territory.

Lewiston Teller: At the land office in Lewiston during the month of May, there were 4 pre-emption cash entries, 29 pre emption declaratory statements, 15 homestead filings and 10 timber culture entries. Beside the cash entries these filings absorbed 10,080 acres of our good lands.

Seattle Dispatch: In our postoffice, under the system established here, one man is required to do the work for which two are paid, and to divide the pay with the postmaster who renders no service—a system which demands immediate reformation under the rule of civil service reform.

A man named Isaac Fredrichsen, a Russian Finn, met with a terrible accident in the Tacoma sawmill on Wednesday afternoon. While working near one of the saws, a belt broke, and he was struck a hard blow in the face with a piece of the leather, throwing him upon the saw. The teeth cut through his right shoulder and collar bone down close to the cavity of the chest, cutting and tearing the flesh as only a circular saw can do. Recovery is impossible.

TO BE TAXED.—The Olympia Transcript of Saturday contains the following:

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company brought suit at the last term of the District Court restraining Sheriff Billings from making sale of the company's lands for taxes. The case was argued by H. G. Struve, counsel for the company, and John P. Judson for the people, and was taken under consideration by Judge Greene, who has given an able opinion, deciding that the lands owned by the company are subject to taxation, and that the right of way purchased by the company are also subject to taxation.

Disease is an Antagonist

That should be attacked the instant he shows himself. Don't wait. At him before his nails are grown, and wipe him out. The great alterative and invigorant of the age, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will speedily infuse such healthful tone into your organism that it will be enabled to successfully resist future attacks. The Bitters prevent and remedy chills and fever and bilious remittents, and eradicate dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine difficulties. It is particularly beneficial when the system has been drained of its vitality or is inherently deficient in strength. The nerves gather from it both vigor and tranquility. But while it imparts strength and gives a wholesome stimulus to the animal economy, it does not unduly excite it like the cheap exhilirants sometimes resorted to, under the erroneous impression that they can invigorate.

Be True to Your Teeth

Perfect Cures where all other Treatment had Failed.

Crowds Coming from all Parts of the Country to Visit Him.

The Following Certificates Speak for Themselves:

TO DR PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well and am able to return to my business on the Snohomish. JAMES KING.

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To Lot People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the palate, and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood vessels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer; also the diseased portion of bone and palpebrary gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.

THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put my self under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me now, labor seems a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.

Yours Truly, JOHN BALLARD,

Oregon Statesman.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1877.

"CO-OPERATIVE ENTERPRISE."

PORTLAND, June 6, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In to-day's issue of your paper I notice a communication signed "Farmer" under the above heading, wherein the People's Protective Transportation Company receives an encouraging notice; and why I hasten to write this article is to correct a wrong impression that may go out in regard to the company having "a considerable sum of net earnings available for a dividend." The company has earned some money over and above running expenses, yet it has some "little bills" to foot which it proposes to meet. The stockholders do not expect a dividend until they begin to carry off the present crop.

And while on this subject I would be a little more space. The present number of stockholders in Polk and Yamhill counties (for I understand that they have already subscribed stock enough in Polk county for another boat) is something over five hundred, and these men represent three-fourths of the wealth of the two counties, and will have from eight hundred thousand to one million bushels surplus of wheat the present year, so you see the enterprise has a backbone."

There seems to be a lull now in the newspapers on the transportation question and I do not wish to open it up, but there seems to be a prevailing idea that the farmers are at war with Portland and that Portland is at war with the farmers,—the farmers thinking that Portland gets too much "leakage," etc., in the transfer of grain to ships, and Portland thinking that the farmers in end eventually to pass by them and load their ships at the seaboard. If either are laboring under these impressions, we think them erroneous.

In the first place, boats that are made to run into every nook and corner of the Willamette river and its tributaries are not fit to go to Astoria. Besides, the nearer we can get ships to us the better, and the nearer we can get Portland to us the better. We wish Portland was much larger than it is and in the center of our agricultural district. Then we would have a ready market for most of our perishable products. But suppose Portland were at Astoria or over on the Sound or San Francisco was our Portland. But perhaps some will say that we have paid enough tribute to San Francisco to get no benefits. Very well, then; if we cannot get Portland any nearer, let us keep it where it is.

Now a little "gratuitous advice" to Portland. Can't you give transportation companies encouragement enough to induce them to land their grain here at a public wharf instead of high rents, tax on wharfingers and everything that touches their grain crying for coin? A little co-operation in this line, I think, would not be bad. There is a limit to extortion. We have a use for Portland. We also have a use for transportation companies. But suppose the high freight rates of last year had continued another year, with the short crop and low prices of last year. A calamity more disastrous to the agricultural interests of the Willamette valley could not be readily thought of. The financial condition of the farming classes would have showered tears on many a hearthstone from actual bankruptcy. Portland can commit suicide, but we don't want it to do so. ONE SHARE.

TREASURY WOMEN.

WHOLESALE REDUCTION IN THE FORCE—SAD SCENES AT THE TIME OF DISMISSAL.

Since the transfer of the engraving and printing work of the treasury department in Washington to a New York bank note company, there have been hundreds of dismissals in the bureau, mostly of female employes. Grace Greenwood writes bitterly of it to the New York Times. She says: What shall we do with the fathers and mothers suddenly deprived of employment, and the multitudes of poor children brought face to face with cruel want? The discouragement, the dire straits, the almost distraction of good people, honest, faithful people at our very doors, move us more, it must be confessed, than the distant woes of Christians in Turkey or Turks in extremis. Upon my word I can see little hope for relief for these, our dismissed public servants, except in a good old-fashioned pestilence. A tidal wave is sometimes a good outlet for surplus population, but that would carry away the fortunate with the unfortunate, heads of bureaus, placehunters, contractors, and civil service reformers and informers, which were a loss the republic could hardly survive; whereas your pestilence searches and signals out the unhappy, the hopeless, the hungry, and makes short work with them. It won't take off the discouraged, the discharged soldiers of that same civil service, by the platoon, and leave few widows and children to be pensioned—if there were such things as pensions for such as they. Terrible scenes are said to have taken place in the Treasury Department during the official massacres last month and the first of this. Indeed, every day is the day of doom for some poor wretch or wretches. One of these scenes is thus described by a Washington paragraphist, in a style suggesting the Newgate calendar and the bloody record of the conciergerie:

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the doorkeeper of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing received orders to allow no one to enter, and then preparations for the impending executions began in earnest. The death-lists were produced, and all the employes were required to remain until the sad work was finished. The head of each division was presented with the names of the victims under his charge, and also with the money necessary to settle their claims for salaries up to date. The scene was a very affecting one as the roll was called, and each unfortunate signed his or her name with trembling hands. The sights presented were varied, however. The impending danger had steeled the hearts of some to meet whatever fate awaited them, but others broke down completely.

The article goes on to state that some women cried and sobbed and even fainted, and some broke out in wild exclamations, maledictions and out of place, such as appeals to God to help them. One lady asked with indignant surprise, "Do you know who I am? I am the cousin of President Hayes!" and threatened the headsman with punishment for his "unjust act." Another—a poor widow who had lost husband, father and brother in the late war—is described as having signed her name with soldierly calmness; but as soon after breaking down in the most pusillanimous way, wringing her hands and crying, "This, then, is my reward for all I have sacrificed." This is the woman of it, and such examples of feminine weakness and sentimentality and obstinate hanging on to dead claims go to prove. I admit that women are unfit, constitutionally and logically, for positions under the stern reform government of to day. Consanguinity does not count for so much now as under some administrations it has counted; yet I should like to know if the fair kinswoman of President Hayes has been reinstated. I hope she has. A president in a family now and then ought to be a good thing. People should be encouraged in raising them. As for the special claims of the widows of Union soldiers, you see, as a high official said to one of them the other day, "That thing is played out." A sort of poetic, melancholy sentiment, like mourning weeds, once hung about these sad victims of a great struggle for the life of the nation; but now they are so many obstructions on the track of what is called civil service reform, and they must give way or go under and be crushed. Their necessary destruction doubtless gives pain to officials who hate a scene. A certain railroad conductor, though hardened by long experience on the lightning-express, once said:

"I hate to run over and smash people; it messes up my track so."

Now it is announced that Secretary Sherman is resolved to put into thorough operation the State apportionment rule, so long a dead letter, which would throw overboard some two thousand or more of experienced clerks and employes of all sorts. If this pitiless programme shall be carried out, I really think there will be revolt, and riots in Washington among the class now most peaceable and orderly. We shall need to "call for the militia ary," like so many Noah Claypoles or carpet-bag governors.

O, that my tongue were in the thunder's mouth.

I would cry to all worthy working women, to all energetic, honorable men seeking an opening for talent, a field for honest industry, keep away from Washington's. Avoid the place as fearfully as though every department of government were a pest house—as though Congress, instead of beneficially legislating, were doing a lively business in all the plagues of Egypt,

CLAY AND BUCHANAN.—Henry Clay, one day in debate, took occasion to rebuke the Democrats for not coming out and defining their position. "Let us hear from you," he said in his clarion tones. "I call for the leaders of the party." Mr. Buchanan at once rose and declared that he was prompt in expressing his opinions on questions before the Senate, but that he chose to take his own time for speaking. "Mr. President," replied Mr. Clay in a provokingly cool manner, "the Senator from Pennsylvania labors under a mistake, for he was not alluded to. Far from it, Mr. President; I called for the leaders of the party." Mr. Buchanan was very angry, and appealed to the Senate whether the Senator from Kentucky had not fixed his eyes upon him and addressed his remarks to him? "Perhaps," Mr. President," remarked Mr. Clay. "I can explain how the Senator from Pennsylvania fell into this error. I often suppose that he is looking at me when he is really looking the other way." A roar of laughter greeted this allusion to Buchanan's obliquity of vision.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

SATURDAY EVENING, June 9, 1877.

Gold in New York, 1053.

Legal Tenders in Portland—buying 94, selling 95.

Silver Coin—4@5 per cent discount.

The financial situation in local circles is essentially unchanged and we shall probably witness the quiet condition of affairs and an even smooth current in the money market until the incoming of the new grain crop. Borrowers are not numerous in the market and are met on the usual terms. The preparations apparent do not warrant the belief that shipments will be brisk during the first months of the coming harvest year.

Tonnage.

On the 1st inst. there were in port at San Francisco 9,314 tons under engagement to load wheat, 9,074 tons miscellaneous, and 38,428 tons disengaged.

Quotations for wheat vessels at this time from this port are about £8 and from San Francisco £2 7s@£1 10s. At this time we quote wooden vessels for wheat at £2 7s 6d@2 10s to Cork, U.K. but it is possible that American ships would refuse either figure in view of the prospect of European complications and the fact that the new cereal year will soon commence. British iron ships are generally out of the market under instructions from owners. The improved prospect of the crop has stiffened the tone of the freight market. Some estimates by reliable parties place the surplus for export next year at from 225,000@250,000 tons from California, and 150,000 tons from Oregon. If these figures are reliable we shall not be overburdened with tonnage, and if England is drawn into the Turco-Russian war all neutral flags would command high rates of freight.

Since the taking of the City of Amoy, noticed several days ago, we have heard of no other engagements for the Oregon trade.

Produce Exports.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Increasing European demand for American produce is indicated by the fact that to-day's steamers take full cargoes, including 104,900 bushels grain, 1,100 boxes bacon, 2,900 boxes cheese, 3 600 packages and 4,400 boxes butter, 1,600 quarters fresh beef.

Boston Market.

BOSTON, June 9.—Flour dull, depressed; holders willing to make concessions. Wheat dull, inactive, neglected; low grades less heavy, better grades firm; market closing firm, quiet. Hides quiet unchanged; 600 Calfora skips sold private. Wool, business light but better one to the market, California quiet; no change, improved demand; holders being less anxious to realize sales of 49,000 lbs at 20.

San Francisco Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Wheat—Shipping, $2 30@2 35; milling, $2 35@2 45.

Barley—Feed, 81 80@1 87½; brewing, $1 60@1 65.

Corn—$1 70@1 72½.

Oats—$1 90@2 20.

Potatoes—75c@1¼.

Gold—106⅞; Greenbacks, 94½@95; Silver, 6@6¼ discount.

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship City of Chester, from San Francisco, is in the river, and will arrive Monday about noon.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Arrived—Str Geo. W. Elder, Astoria; schr Greyhound, Tahiti.

Sailed—Brig Lesperian, Honolulu; bark Northwest, Fort Madison; brig King Phillip, Port Gamble; schr Goldma, Coos Bay; schr W. L. Beebe, Port Blakely.

PRATT'S

MINERAL

COLZA

OIL

300° FIRE TEST.

Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers.

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils:

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INVITED to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colza," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils is sufficient commendation as to its quality. It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp. It being of too heavy gravity for such use; but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction producing a pure flame of great brilliancy. Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to use of these Oils on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows:

"Any Oil which will stand a Fire Test of Three Hundred (300) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers."

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colza Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable:

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

[COPY.] BOSTON, MASS., Oct. 19th, 1876

A sample of burning Oil, marked Mineral Colza, manufactured by CHARLES PRATT & Co., of New York City, has been tested by me with the following result: It has a Fire Test of 328° Fahrenheit. It does not ignite under 328° F.

(Signed) S. DANA HAYES,
Massachusetts State Assayer.

Report of Inspector of Petroleum Oil, for State of Massachusetts.

[COPY.] BOSTON, October 4th 1876.

I have tested samples of Mineral Colza Oil, from CHARLES PRATT & Co., New York City, and find the igniting point or Fire Test to be 315° Fahrenheit. (Signed) R. F. MEANS, Mass. State Inspector of Petroleum.

Report on Sample of Mineral Colza Oil, Tested for U. S. Inspector of Steamers 2d District.

[COPY.] NEW YORK, April 25th, 1876.

F. Addison Low, U. S. Sub. Inspector.

DEAR SIR: We have tested the sample of Mineral Colza Oil presented by you, and find it stands a Fire Test of 300° Fahrenheit, and we consider it in all respects a very superior Oil.

(Signed) LOCKWOOD, BROS. & HOLLY,
Petroleum Inspectors appointed by N. Y. City Produce Exchange.

To the Trade.

The undersigned beg to call your attention to all of the above, and thus advise you that they will at all times have a full supply of the above mentioned goods on hand, and would be pleased to have your orders.
